

House Shelves Pension Bill

Killed By One Vote Margin On Roll-Call

Washington, March 24—(AP)—In a final jittery flip-flop ballot, the House today killed the Rankins veterans pension bill—by a one vote margin.

Ironically, the death stroke was administered on the initiative of a World War II veteran.

President Truman told his news conference later he was exceedingly happy over the outcome. He called it a forward-looking action.

Debated For Three Days
The sudden end to Rep. John E. Rankin's efforts to put across his multi-billion dollar measure climaxed three days of quarrelsome debate during which the House members changed their votes five times before shelving the bill.

On the showdown the tally was 208 to 207 to send the riddled legislation back to the veterans committee for "further study." That group, headed by the fiery Mississippi Democrat, possibly might try to re-draft a veterans aid bill for later consideration, but Rankin, himself, indicated no such effort was in prospect.

"That kills this legislation for this congress," he said.

And as he stalked, red faced, from the chamber, Rankin told a reporter: Organized Against Us

"They were organized against us and ran over us."

When Rankin confidently brought his pension bill before the House Tuesday it was drafted to prove $90 a month for veterans of both World Wars when they reached the age of 65, regardless of their financial needs.

But by the time the final rejection vote was tallied, the measure was so weighted with amendments that even its author could scarcely recognize it.

It was a combat veteran, Rep. Olin E. Teague, of College Station, Texas, who set off the legislative machinery to halt the Rankin bill.

The 39-year-old Democrat, holder of 11 decorations, won election to the House in 1946 while a patient at the Army's Walter Reed hospital.

Boy, 10, Who Said Dad Killed Mother, Changes His Story

Chicago, March 24—(AP)—A little boy who testified ten days ago that "my daddy shot my mummy," stood on a table in criminal court today and said:

"Daddy didn't do it. It was the other man who did it."

As a result, prosecutors suggested that seven-year-old Roger Hord's grandmother talked him into changing his story.

The grandmother, Mrs. Bessie Hord of Niles, Mich., denied it.

Roger's father, Lee Hord, 41, has been held for the grand jury on a charge of murdering Roger's mother, Fannie, 39.

Mrs. Hord was shot to death in her home March 12. At a coroner's inquest March 14, Roger testified:

"My daddy shot my mummy, and then he tried to shoot himself. I told him he'd better not do it."

Roger said his parents quarreled after his father came home late with another man.

Today's criminal court hearing was on a habeas corpus petition by the grandmother, who seeks custody of Roger.

Vandenberg States Red Move To Kill ERP Was Stopped

Washington, March 24—(AP)—Senator Vandenberg (R-Mich) told the Senate today that a Moscow-dictated conspiracy to torpedo the Marshall plan for European recovery has been "all but stopped in its tracks."

Pleading for extension of the multi-billion dollar aid program another year, Vandenberg declared that "current Moscow hysteria" toward the recovery program is clear proof of its success.

"It was fresh air in the lungs of liberty," Vandenberg cried dramatically. "It drove despair from the souls of men."

And now, he said, Moscow's fears are "being realized—and so are our hopes."

Sensors Kem (R-Mo) and Jenner (R-Ind) objected that American funds are being used to finance socialist experiments in England and other nations.

Referring to Britain's socialized medicine program, Jenner shouted, "they couldn't furnish toupes to the baldheaded gentlemen of England if we weren't suckers enough to sponsor such a damn fool program."

Jenner also protested that foreign aid programs, on top of increased spending programs at home, are piling up such a heavy burden on American taxpayers that we will kill the goose that laid the golden egg."

Many Support Bill To Put 50,000,000 On Social Security

Washington, March 24—(AP)—Support sprang up in the House today for putting new millions of workers into the old age insurance system.

The administration proposed a "stamp book" plan to help handle the tax-paying problem and facilitate extension of insurance coverage.

President Truman wants to blanket an additional 20,000,000 under the plan. This would make a total of 50,000,000 workers.

Some bipartisan support immediately appeared in the House for broadening the plan, although some lawmakers voiced doubt that all 2,000,000 can be brought in at this time.

Moreover, Rep. Keane (R-N.J.), a member of the House Ways and Means committee, told reporters he agrees with President Truman that the social security tax should be increased from the present one percent to two percent each against employers' pay and employers' payroll.

Keane also supported the idea of increased social security insurance coverage.

Asks 5c An Hour Limit Be Put On Parking Meters

Springfield, Ill., March 24—(AP)—The Illinois legislature was asked today to set a limit of five cents an hour on city parking meter charges.

A bill by Rep. Irving J. Meites (D-Chicago) also proposed that meter income be restricted to acquisition and maintenance of free municipal parking grounds.

The revenue restriction would apply after meters were paid for out of funds accruing from their operation.

Among other bills brought into the senate and House were those to:

Authorize University of Illinois trustees to arrange payments to taxing bodies for services rendered from 1944 to 1949 in connection with university properties. Trustees would be employed in the future to provide compensation for services benefiting properties devoted to income-producing purposes.

SUITS, TOPCOATS AT $11
Boston, March 24—(AP)—Suits and topcoats for $11.

A large Boston specialty shop (Filene's) announced today resumption of one-day sales in its bargain basement of men's clothing at that price. The first since before the war will be held next Monday.

Washington is the No. 1 state in the production of aluminum.

State Senate OK's Flexible Pension For Old And Blind

Springfield, Ill., March 23—(AP)—The Illinois senate today passed and sent to the House a bill setting a flexible $65 limit on monthly pensions to old age and blind pensioners.

The bill conflicts somewhat with one approved by the House yesterday and referred to the senate.

Under the House measure, the ceiling would be increased from $50 to a straight $65. But the senate version to adjust the $65 maximum twice a year based on cost of living changes.

Senators said they would try to work out some kind of agreement with the House.

ACCIDENTALLY KILLED
Aurora, Ill., March 24—(AP)—Carl Richard Christenson, 40, an employee at an Aurora power plant, was accidentally electrocuted today.

Christenson, a worker for the Western United Gas and Electric company, apparently lost his balance as he worked on a sub-station tower. He tumbled 25 feet on to a connection of several power lines.

His widow, a daughter, 18, and a son, 15, survive.

Truman Calls Off All Talks

Will Work To Get His Plans Passed

Washington, March 24—(AP)—President Truman today swept his April calendar clear of all out-of-town engagements and announced a daylight to dark work schedule, apparently aimed mainly at getting his legislation program through Congress.

With much of that program facing an uncertain fate on Capitol Hill, the president disclosed at a news conference that he will be seeing many legislators in the days ahead. He also will be busy, he said, clearing up business accumulated during his Florida vacation.

The president cancelled the last two of four speeches he had set for April. Those called off today were to have been made April 10 and 23 at the United Nations cornerstone laying and at a dinner honoring Dr. Chaim Weizmann, president of Israel, both in New York.

Postpone Cornerstone Laying
On hearing of the president's decision, U. N. officials at Lake Success postponed the cornerstone laying indefinitely. They said a new date would depend on when Mr. Truman can take part.

Previous presidential speeches called off were those set for April 1 at the Massachusetts Institute of Technology mid-century convocation and April 26 at Boston College. Increasing pressure of official duties was given as the reason for those cancellations. Legislative duties were emphasized.

Mr. Truman told his news conference today that the House had taken constructive, forward-looking steps in recommitting the veterans' pension bill. It made him exceedingly happy, he said.

Will Back Walgren
He reported he is still backing his former Senate colleague, Mort C. Walgren, for chairman of the National Security Resources Board, despite the action of the Senate armed services committee in tabling the nomination. He never backs down on people, he said.

Walgren has not asked that his nomination be withdrawn, he replied to another question.

The president would not comment on the present state of the rent control bill, with its "local option" clause which he earlier had opposed. He said he will wait until it reaches him and then will comment copiously if needed.

He still hopes to get his civil rights program through, he said, adding his aides are still working on a national health insurance plan. He said it will be consistent with his messages on the subject.

He told the newsmen he will be present at the signing of the North Atlantic pact here April 4, but that Secretary of State Acheson will do the actual signing for this government.

One newsmen wanted to know whether Edwin W. Pauley, who called at the White House earlier in the day, had discussed Mexican oil, but Mr. Truman said it concerned California politics. Pauley is a former treasurer and member of the Democratic national committee.

House Committee Reports Thousands Are Spying In U.S.

Washington, March 24—(AP)—The House Un-American Activities committee today said that "thousands of Russian agents" and more thousands of Americans are spying in the United States right now.

It said some of the spies "may" be attached to the Russian embassy or the United Nations.

And in a time of national crisis, the committee said, "the United States would have nearly 825,000 persons who are either spies, traitors or saboteurs working against us from within."

The statements were made in a pamphlet titled "Spotlight On Spies." Its publication was only one of several developments of the day bearing on U. S. relations with the Soviet Union and the committee's own proceedings.

Others included:

The state department made public a report declaring that "the Soviet government fears a free interchange of ideas" with the west because 30 years of communism have failed to give the Soviet people a living standard even approaching that of Americans. The report was timed for the opening of the three day "world peace" conference in New York which the State Department has predicted will be a sounding board for communist propaganda.

CONTRACTOR DIES
Galesburg, Ill., March 24—(AP)—Peter T. Olson, 89, contractor who erected the Galesburg club, the Methodist church and several other large buildings here, died today.

ASSISTANT PASTOR DIES
Galesburg, Ill., March 24—(AP)—The Rev. William Kirkpatrick, 59, assistant pastor of Corpus Christi Catholic church and former principal of Corpus Christi High School, died today.

SIGNS JEWISH AID BILL
Washington, March 24—(AP)—President Truman today signed a resolution authorizing a $16,000,000 contribution by the United States for the relief of Palestine refugees.

Knetzer Held In Contempt Of Court For Not Answering

Springfield, Ill., March 24—(AP)—Robert L. Knetzer, fabulous Edwardsville automobile dealer, was held in contempt of court today by Federal Judge Charles G. Briggie.

Judge Briggie also ordered that James Walker, a former business associate of Knetzer, be held in custody until it is determined if he is to be charged with perjury.

This action came at a creditors hearing in Knetzer's bankruptcy proceedings.

Knetzer was adjudged in contempt for refusing to answer a question about a contract put to him several times by Attorney William Horsley of Springfield, representing creditors, and Judge Briggie.

Horsley asked if Knetzer had a contract drawn by lawyers last September. Knetzer replied he couldn't recall exactly when the contract was drawn, but he refused to answer when asked what parties were involved in the contract.

"I refuse to answer on the ground that an answer might tend to incriminate me in criminal proceedings pending elsewhere and I stand on my constitutional rights," Knetzer said.

To Make Women Report Pregnancy To Stop Abortions

Chicago, March 24—(AP)—If you're going to have a baby, you'd better report it if Dr. Herman N. Bundesen's plan is adopted in Chicago.

He says such reports would help prevent abortions and help fight any harmful effects of syphilis or blood type clashes.

Reports are not now required anywhere, he says, "but I'd like to see Chicago be the first city to put it into effect."

Dr. Bundesen is Chicago's health commissioner. He said his suggestion may be presented to the city's board of health for adoption if physicians agree with him.

He outlined his plan to reporters in commenting on recent murder by abortion charges against a Chicago housewife who told police she helped perform 60 to 80 abortions in the basement of her home.

Dr. Bundesen said the plan is not intended "to snoop on anyone," but is meant only to improve the health of the expectant mother and her unborn child. He did not go into how the plan could be enforced.

Pregnancy reports, he said, could help assure proper medical care, detect any unhealthy conditions in advance, and correct any erroneous medical information which some women get from consulting with the neighbors.

Congresswoman Says She Received Threats By Mail

Washington, March 24—(AP)—Congresswoman Edith Nourse Rogers (R-Mass.) said today that she has received a series of mailed death threats and that a police guard has been set on her home.

The 67-year-old New Englander refused to comment on the nature of the threats or their source.

She indicated, however, that there was no connection between the letters and the now widely publicized lawsuit in which she was named as the third figure in the marriage breakup of Navy Captain Harold A. Latta-Lawrence, 47, and his wife, Elene Diana.

Process servers served Capt. Latta-Lawrence today with papers halting him into court to answer his wife's suit for $300 a month separate maintenance. The papers were accepted through his attorney.

Mrs. Latta-Lawrence, a strawberry blonde from Chattanooga, Tenn., who says she is "thirtyish," filed the action two days ago, accusing her husband of "close and intimate" association with Mrs. Rogers.

The Massachusetts legislator, dean of Republican women in congress, first disclosed that she had received threats by mail in a Valentine's day speech in the House on Feb. 14. She remarked then that she had received such a letter as a grim "Valentine."

Noted Kansas City Man Shot In Car

Kansas City, March 24—(AP)—A prominent country club manager was shot to death today in his parked car not far from the downtown district.

The man, Wolf C. Rimann, about 35 and long identified with midwest golfing, was killed instantly.

Police issued a pick-up order for three men who are believed to have fled in a car later found abandoned in the northeast residential district.

No motive was advanced for the slaying. A friend of Rimann's, Gary Graham, told police Rimann had drawn between $20,000 and $25,000 from a bank earlier in the day. He said Rimann had expected to complete a deal for the purchase of a Twelfth street tavern.

Police, who reported Rimann was unarmed, said only $183 was found on Rimann's body.

Miners To End Strike Monday

BATTLESHIP IOWA PUT ON INACTIVE LIST

San Francisco, March 24—(AP)—The Navy put the 45,000-ton battleship Iowa on the shelf here today.

The World War II veteran joined her sister ships, the Wisconsin and New Jersey in the Pacific reserve fleet at Hunters Point Navy yard.

Decommissioning of the ship leaves only the Missouri, another vessel of the same tonnage, on the Navy's active battleship list. The Missouri is on the Atlantic coast.

Illinois American Legion Auxiliary Meet In Chicago

Chicago, March 24—(AP)—Approximately 1,000 members of the Illinois American Legion auxiliary met here today for their annual patriotic conference.

Guest speakers were Capt. John B. Heffernan, Washington, D. C., director of naval records, USN; Martin B. Buckner, Indianapolis, director of the Legion's national security division; and Mrs. Harry C. Mulder, Hammond, Ind., national vice president for the central division, American Legion auxiliary.

Guests included Pauline Corder, Quincy, Ill., last year's Illini girls state governor, and Wayne Sullivan, Kewanee, last year's governor of boys state.

Today's conference was directed by Mrs. Ernest Duckett, Chicago, American Legion chairman of the state organization. Mrs. Russell W. Carter, Decatur, Illinois national security chairman, and Mrs. Howard Peterson, Chicago, state Pan-American chairman.

33,000 Detroit Area Auto Workers Idled By Strikes

Detroit, March 24—(AP)—More than 33,000 Detroit area auto workers were idled today because of several strikes, but nearly a third of that number were told to return to their jobs tomorrow.

Harshest hit by the stoppages was Chrysler Corp., which sent home 24,700 employees following a strike of 2,600 at a Chrysler supplier firm, Midland Steel Products Co.

The 10,000 Chrysler workers employed at the Dodge Main plant were told to return to work Friday. However, 14,025 have been laid off at least until Monday.

A company spokesman said a shortage of body frames—supplied by the Midland firm—caused the work curtailment.

Discharge of 11 workers led to the midland strike. Management charged the 11 with refusing to work. However, the CIO United Auto Workers, representing the Midland employees, charged the firings constituted a contract violation.

Some sources have speculated on the possibility that Lewis called his men out for two weeks to reduce larger-than-usual stocks of mined coal. That was seen as a move to strengthen the UMW's bargaining position. But Lewis has said only that the stop work order had two purposes—to observe a memorial to victims of mine accidents and to appoint of Dr. James Boyd as director of the U. S. Bureau of Mines.

BUILDING PILLBOXES
Vienna, March 24—(AP)—Oskar Helmer, Austrian minister of interior, said today Hungary is building concrete pillboxes and installing flood lights along her border with Austria apparently to guard against refugees slipping across into Austria.

THOMAS DOING WELL
Washington, March 24—(AP)—Aides of Rep. J. Parnell Thomas (R-N.J.) said today the condition of the former House Un-American activities committee chairman was "good" following an abdominal operation.

Thomas was operated on this morning at Walter Reed hospital.

Sponsors Withdraw As 'Peace' Meeting Nears

New York, March 24—(AP)—Additional sponsors withdrew today from the peace conference, said its announcements of withdrawals from the conference came from friends of the sponsors and in some cases by personal conversations with them.

Meanwhile, the intellectual freedom group offered its platform at a Saturday counter-rally to Dr. Harlow Shapley, Harvard astronomer and chairman of the national council of arts, sciences and professions.

The group offered him "full freedom to speak as you please."

There was no immediate response from Dr. Shapley.

WEATHER
The Norbury Sanatorium, cooperative observer for the U. S. Weather Bureau, yesterday reported the temperature for Thursday as follows: High, 72; low, 41; and at 6 p.m., 70.

Forecast for Illinois—Today occasional rain, turning colder in afternoon. High 60 to 64.

Read Writings Of Joe Stalin At Red's Trial

New York, March 24—(AP)—Writings of Joseph Stalin were read to the jury at the Communist conspiracy trial today in the government's effort to prove the party plans to use violence in seizing control of the United States.

U. S. Attorney John F. X. McGohey read several excerpts from "Foundations of Leninism" written by the Russian premier.

This publication was one of several identified by Louis Budenz, one-time high communist official but now an arch-foe of the party. Budenz is the first government witness.

McGohey quoted Stalin as declaring that the proletarian revolution in the United States "is impossible without the violent destruction of the machinery of the bourgeois state and its replacement by the machinery of the proletarian state."

Another book read by the prosecutor, "Why communism," suggested that communist revolutionists were justified in using poison gases "to fight the bosses."

A third publication admitted into evidence, a "manual of organization wa-of the Communist party," asserted the final objective of the American Communist party is to establish a "Soviet socialist Republic in the United States."

Budenz, former member of the American party's "politburo" who renounced communism in 1945, said all these publications were given to him by Jacob Stachel, one of the 11 party leaders who are defendants in the trial.

He testified he used the books and manual constantly through his decade of a party service. His duties included editorship of the daily worker, Communist New York newspaper.

The defendants are charged with conspiring to advocate the forcible overthrow of the U. S. government.

Other excerpts read to the jury included:

From "Foundations of Leninism" by Stalin:

A dictatorship of the proletariat is "untrammeled by law and violence" and "cannot be complete Democracy, Democracy for all, for rich and poor alike," but "must be a state that is Democratic in a new evidence, a "manual of organization wa-

EINSTEIN, MAN OF VISION

Albert Einstein, one of the greatest scholars of all time, is still receiving tributes on his 70th birthday anniversary, which he observed as quietly as was possible at his home in Princeton, N. J. He is a member of the Princeton Institute for Advanced Study.

Dr. Einstein is regarded by many as not only the leading scientist of today but also the foremost individual of the world. The United States can take some pride in the fact that he found our country a hospitable place for his ideals and teachings.

What is not generally known about Einstein is that, in addition to being a great scholar, who was one of history's immortals at 26, he is a thinker of profound philosophical insight and humanitarian instincts.

It is forgotten by many that in 1914 when the First World War broke out and 93 German intellectuals issued their manifesto calling for German supremacy and the permanent enfeebling of France, Einstein, although director of the Kaiser Wilhelm II Physics institute, refused to sign. Instead, he risked his life by issuing a counter manifesto which was signed by himself and two others.

As he had denounced imperialism under the kaiser, so he refused to accept the doctrines of the Nazis. He received asylum in America, and in 1939 wrote the famous letter to President Roosevelt which brought about discovery of the atomic bomb.

At that time war was upon the world and he put aside his dream of a community of nations. Now he has revived this aim. With some other foremost scholars of the world, he believes the only hope of lasting peace lies in a supra government—an international state.

KEEP UP THE GOOD WORK

(Decatur Review)

Governor Adlai Stevenson has shown no disposition to call off the protection of Illinois highways by slowing down on weighing trucks. There must be heavy pressure on the state highway department to relent. To relent means to turn against Illinois motorists who paid for the construction of the roads and to favor trucking companies whose main purpose is to haul as big loads as possible for the profit obtainable.

There are some pieces of machinery too heavy to be moved over the highways by truck. The railroads are still doing business and anxious to handle such material. When a trucking concern overloads a truck by 22,000 pounds it knows it is violating the laws of the state. The only excuse is that others are doing the same thing. The time is here to halt the use of that excuse and those assigned to weighing trucks are putting that excuse out of business.

If trucking concerns had to buy their own rights of way and build their roads as the railroads do, they would realize the subsidy they are receiving from the motorists who build roads they can use. The license and gasoline fees they pay do not compensate for the business routes provided for them.

There should be no slackening in weighing trucks and in the enforcement of laws to protect the highways and those who use the highways.

DON'T CLOSE THE BOOKS

Sooner or later Joe Louis is going to make good on his announcement of retirement, as Harry Lauder finally did, but it is a little too early to write him off.

He says now that he will enter the promotional end of boxing. That's what makes his decision to retire a bit dubious—not that anyone would doubt Joe's intentions. There are enterprises in which money can be lost faster than in sports promotion, but few in which the risks are so great. And the natural thing for the former champ to do is to take one more fling in the ring to recoup his losses.

Well, it shows that Joe Louis has all kinds of courage. And even if the observation is premature, it does no harm to state that as a champion Joe Louis has been a credit to his race and his profession. That could stand repeating a good many times.

THE DOCTOR SAYS

Growing Pains Usually Pass In Time

By Edwin P. Jordan, M.D.
Written For NEA Service

Children often have vague pains in their arms or legs usually called "growing pains." Probably most youngsters with these vague pains merely have been growing so fast that their bones and muscles have not quite kept up their proper relations.

Sometimes the curve of the spine may not be just right, or crooked heels or bow legs are present which cause slight strains on the muscles or ligaments. In such cases in which the abnormalities are mild, plenty of sunshine, good food and the passage of time usually take care of the difficulty.

Serious abnormalities may be responsible in some cases. The help of an orthopedic surgeon in deciding whether braces or other special measures are necessary is then desirable. A few children with growing pains seem to have something wrong with one or more of their internal glands. When present, this requires correction.

Occasionally the pains may be caused by diseased tonsils, adenoids or sinuses, and this is probably related to the muscular rheumatism which older people get.

Possible Connection
There is also a debate among medical men as to whether growing pains may be a mild form of rheumatic fever. Usually rheumatic fever comes on suddenly with swollen and painful joints and other characteristic symptoms. Rheumatic fever can and often does injure the heart. Since some children with growing pains develop heart trouble without any other typical signs of rheumatic fever, the possibility of a connection has to be considered.

Certainly children who have severe growing pains which last for very long should be examined by a physician to make sure that no permanent damage is being done and find out what can be tried to relieve the discomfort.

Note: Dr. Jordan is unable to answer individual questions from readers. However, each day he will answer one of the most frequently asked questions in his column.

THE DOCTOR ANSWERS

By Edwin P. Jordan, M.D.

QUESTION: I have a great deal of trouble with cold feet, especially just before going to sleep. The feet look white. What can be done for this?

ANSWER: This is some kind of disturbance of circulation. Whether it is caused by Raynaud's disease or some similar condition is hard to tell. A careful diagnosis is indicated. If nothing serious is found, soaking the feet in warm water before retiring might be helpful.

Whales have been known to jump as high as 20 feet.

Machine Leaving Average Citizen Farther Behind

By HAL BOYLE

New York—(AP)—The machine is outgrowing people.

It is leaving the average citizen farther and farther behind. He no longer can understand it. At least I can't.

Recently I reached my 38th birthday—and with no sense of victory. After 35 a man celebrates a birthday with the morbid pleasure of a small boy picking at a scab on his knee.

Just for the fun of it I sat down and figured out some of the things I don't know. It was an amazing list—amazing that a man could live so long and learn so little. The man of the future will probably grow to know more and more about less and less. Until finally he will be able to go through life by just saying "Ugh."

Here were some of the things I couldn't—and still can't do:
Drive a motor car. (You'd be surprised how many people can't.)
Sew in a light bulb in less than ten minutes.

Fix an electric socket, or repair a gadget of any kind.
Tune in a television set or operate a record-changer photograph.

He Can't Sew on a Button
Sew on a button.
Play any card game except "Old Maid." I also can't play chess, dominoes or assemble a cut-out picture puzzle.

Identify any bone in the human body with certainty except the femur. (The only reason I can do this is that a friend of mine broke his, and told me where it was.)

Recognize any flower by name except the rose, or any trees except the elm and the oak.

Build anything, including a doghouse, although I have spent some of the best years of my life in these structures.

Not Musically Inclined
Play a musical instrument or speak a foreign language.

Inhale a cigaret without coughing, or give artificial respiration to a drowning person.

Blow bubble gum—although I've tried—or mix any drink except a highball or an aspirin paraffin.

Cook anything except a hard-boiled egg.

Bend over and touch the floor without buckling my knees.

Talk into a microphone without enduring fright, or cash a personal check without a sense of unreasoning guilt.

All of these disabilities leave me feeling rather useless and helpless. And yet I think the average man everywhere can complete a similar list of his own. He is caught in a twilight ignorance between the lost

Chinese Outlook To Be Topic Of Rotary Address

Lawrence M. Lew, associate professor of political science and public administration at Bradley University in Peoria, will speak at the 146th district convention of the Rotary International at the Dunlap hotel on Monday, March 28.

The topic of Lew's address will be "Outlook in China." Formerly dean of the University of Nanking, China, Lew recently came to the United States, bringing with him a wealth of information about the far-eastern situation as it is today.

Professor Lew held a number of positions of responsibility in the Chinese government and was executive secretary of the China UNRRA. As a research fellow for the UNRRA he studied comparative government in London and Washington. He also served as Professor of Public Administration at the Great China University in Shanghai.

A graduate of the University of Nanking, Lew did graduate work at the University of Chicago. He has published a number of articles, both in English and Chinese.

Rio de Janeiro, Brazil, was named for a river which does not exist. Spanish discoverers mistook the wide bay for the mouth of a river, which they called River of January, because they came upon it January 1.

Went Under Knife in First Day

John O'Donald, of Altoona, Pa., was born with his heart on the right side, his stomach standing on end, most of his digestive organs pushed into his chest cavity and his left lung squeezed tight. Normal feeding and adequate breathing were impossible. Rushed to Children's Hospital, Pittsburgh, his organs were set right by a surgeon less than 24 hours after birth. When this picture was taken, he was two weeks old, had gained 11 ounces, and was on normal bottle diet.

Deputy Tax Assessors To Begin Work April 1

Deputy tax assessors who will soon begin work in Jacksonville and Morgan county attended a luncheon and meeting Thursday noon at the Dunlap hotel, where they received their instructions and supplies.

Thomas Harber, county assessor and treasurer, and Sam Hall of the state revenue department addressed the deputy assessors, who have been appointed in the various wards and townships.

The deputy assessors will begin making the rounds April 1. Assessor and Treasurer Harber has asked that the public cooperate with the assessors by filling out schedules promptly.

"If you do not see him, it is your duty to complete the schedule and file it at the court house, or get it to your assessor," Mr. Harber pointed out in discussing the public's part in the work of assessment. He said if it is impossible for the assessor to contact individuals, it is the assessor's duty to make the schedule for them.

"The assessors want to do a good job," Mr. Harber continued. They want to obtain an assessment that will equalize values over the entire county so that each taxpayer will have only his just share of taxes to pay. He can do this with your help.

"You will know most of your assessors as they are your neighbors and friends."

"New real estate values will be made only where new buildings have been erected, or substantial improvements have been made. If you have a new home or other improvements which have never been assessed, our work will be greatly expedited if you will contact this office at the earliest possible date."

Deputy tax assessors have been appointed as follows: South Jacksonville, H. A. Edelbrock; Jacksonville first ward, C. A. Sullivan; second ward, Thomas DeFretas; third ward, John Curtis; fourth ward, Frank Epler; business district, R. G. Baker.

City of Waverly, Howard Burch; Township 13-8, W. I. Rynders; 13-9 Clyde Oxley; 13-10 and 13-11, Sam Jones; 14-8, Luther Wiley; 14-9, O. W. Gould; 14-10, Harry Craig; 14-11, R. E. Stocker; 15-8 and 15-9 Byron Strawn; 15-10, Frank Bourne; 15-11, Arthur Acom; 15-12, William Anderson; 16-8 and 16-9, (to be appointed); 16-10, Walker Henderson; 16-11, Howard McFadden; 16-12, Harvey McLain; 16-13, Dewey Lacey.

Orleans Woman's Club Elects New Officers Tuesday

The Orleans Woman's club met at the home of Mrs. Sylvia Strawn near New Orleans, Tuesday afternoon, at which time officers for the coming year were elected.

Those chosen were Mrs. Hazel Wood, president; Mrs. Julian Kamm, vice president; Mrs. Elizabeth Ash, recording secretary; Mrs. Neil Stevenson, assistant secretary; Mrs. Lilly Clegg, corresponding secretary; and Mrs. Grace Davis, treasurer.

The business session was conducted by Mrs. Mae Kinnett. Mrs. Negus announced the ground-breaking ceremony for the new TrailRangers cottage near Grafton, a federation project. Mrs. Davenport reported the distribution of the fruit day fund.

Delegates were appointed for the district meeting at Petersburg on April 6. They are Mrs. Helen Drury and Mrs. Edna Norfleet, with Mrs. Davenport and Mrs. Louise Harris as alternates. All reservations are to be sent to Mrs. Dwight Cleaves by April 3. Names of all club members who died during the past year are to be submitted to Mrs. G. R. Swartz of Jerseyville, memorial chairman. A donation was voted for the Red Cross.

The district garden chairman, Mrs. J. J. Newton of Concord, gave a talk on "Flowers." A paper on "Vegetable Gardens," was presented by Mrs. Marie Mattson. Refreshments were served.

The next meeting will be held April 5 with Mrs. Hazel Wood.

MURRAYVILLE

Murrayville — The Murrayville Home Bureau Unit met at the home of Mrs. Carey Andrus Tuesday afternoon with Mrs. William Blackwell presiding.

During the business session a donation was voted to the Red Cross and plans for a rummage sale in Jacksonville were discussed.

The major lesson, Style and Design, was given by Mrs. Emory Story and Mrs. Ethel Stringer. The minor lesson, a study of southern Illinois, was presented by Mrs. Ball Fitzsimmons.

Guests present were Mrs. George McGrath, Mrs. Daniel Blimling, Mrs. Arthur Wilson, and Mrs. Dale Blimling.

Joan Trent, two year old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Trent, is a patient at Passavant hospital.

The Missionary society of the Murrayville Baptist church met recently at the home of Mrs. Louis Sooy.

Miss Bess Haynes led the devotions and Mrs. Ora Perkins offered the prayer. The topic discussed by the group during the afternoon was, "God Shows No Partiality."

Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Smith and Vera Lee attended the 50th wedding anniversary celebration of Mr. and Mrs. George Ebre.

Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Stoen, of Chicago, spent the weekend as guests of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Tendick.

Mrs. Dale White has gone to San Diego, California for an extended visit with her daughter and son-in-law.

Mrs. Elvis Spencer visited with her daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. John Sherwin, of Glasgow, over the weekend.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Walsh and Miss Alice Angelo attended a birthday dinner Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. George Wilson near Lynville. The party was given in honor of Mrs. Wilson's mother, Mrs. Frank Worrall. Others present were Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Hart of Jacksonville, Mr. and Mrs. Lonnie Worrall, Eloy Fearneyhough, and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Worrall.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Morrow, of Greenfield, were supper guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. K. Stansfield Sunday.

ASHLAND

Ashland—Mr. and Mrs. Billy Awalt and daughter Deanna Kay, and Mr. and Mrs. Awalt of Berwyn, Ill., were week end visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Bast.

Mrs. William Bast and son, Denny, spent the week end in Normal at the home of her brother, Mr. and Mrs. S. D. Danenberger, Jr. and family.

A son was born to Mr. and Mrs. William Woods Saturday night at St. John's hospital, Springfield. Mrs. Woods was formerly Miss Sylvan Douglass.

Mrs. Whit Greer was discharged from the Memorial hospital, Springfield, where she has been a patient for almost two weeks.

Mrs. S. S. Brownback of this city who is state chairman of the Trail Rangers will be in charge of the ground breaking ceremony for the new Trail Rangers cottage Wednesday afternoon at three o'clock at the Trail Rangers lodge near Grafton.

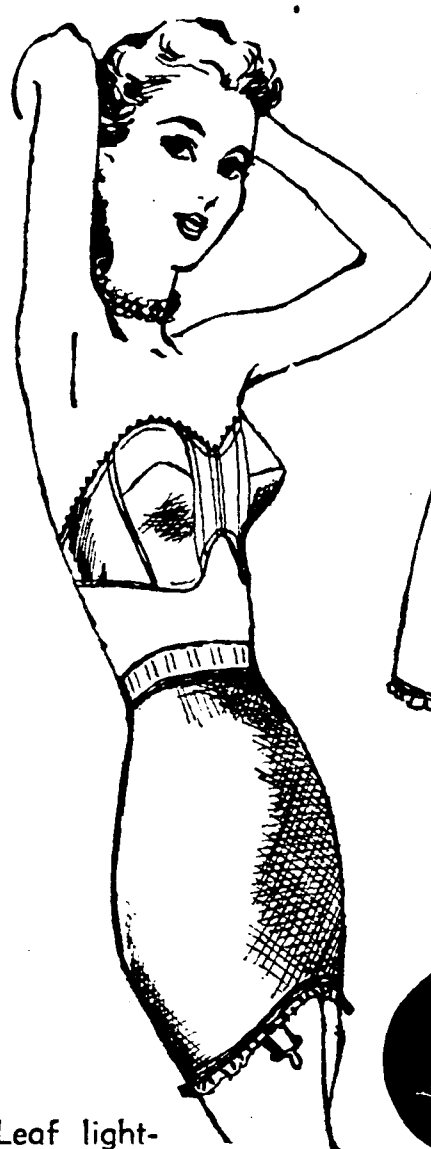

Mrs. Mary Mullen arrived here from Detroit, Michigan, for a week's visit at the home of her son, Howard Mullen and family and other relatives.

A daughter was born to Mr. and Mrs. New Loeffler at St. John's hospital Springfield Sunday night. Mrs. Loeffler was formerly Miss Dorothy Hager.

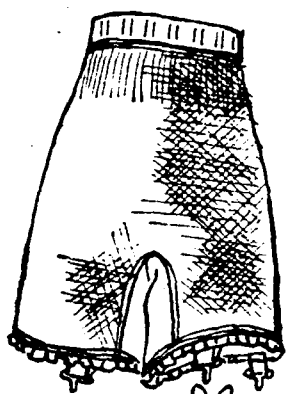

Mr. and Mrs. William H. Pierce spent the week end in Carlinville at the home of their cousin, Mrs. Julia True.

Early French and Spanish settlers of New Orleans built their houses on stilts.

Germany's Atom Smasher at 'Peace' Work

Dr. Walter Bothe, left, Germany's senior nuclear physicist, explains Heidelberg University's 12-million-volt cyclotron to a cancer specialist. The atom-smashing machine, only one in Germany to survive the war, is being used for "peaceful research" with permission of the U. S. Allied scientists say it would take Germany at least 100,000 years to produce a single atom bomb with the cyclotron, which has about 1/20th the volt capacity of American machines.

Pennsylvania Loses Old Laws

Harrisburg, Pa.—(AP)—It may come as a blow to anti-horse thief societies but Pennsylvania legislators are repealing a 128-year-old law against horse stealing.

It's part of a move to rid the state's legal code of ancient, outmoded statutes.

The house okayed a repealer to wipe out "an act to encourage the apprehension of persons who shall have committed the crime of horse stealing."

1. A law "prohibiting the discharge from public posts of union soldiers without reasonable cause."

2. An act providing "enumerating of taxable inhabitants and slaves within this commonwealth."

3. A law giving fishermen permission to catch terrapin, a form of turtle, on Sundays.

Thomas Edison was granted 1,097 patents in his lifetime.

House Witness

Steve Nelson, chairman of the western Pennsylvania Communist Party, has been subpoenaed by the House Un-American Activities Committee for questioning about an alleged industrial spy ring operated by Soviet satellite agents. Nelson figured in the committee's atom-spy investigation last fall, when he was charged with transmitting an atomic formula to Russian diplomatic officials. The new hearings are scheduled to begin April 18.

Chinese Christian Has Trouble

Singapore—(AP)—Hsu Chiant Tsi has started a one-man religious crusade in the face of ridicule and insults.

The Chinese merchant tagged a large board on the rear of his motor car. On it is written in both English and Chinese the words, "Christ Jesus came into the world to save sinners."

His tribulations are many. Attempts have been made to smash the board. Other persons have scribbled obscene words all over it. Hsu simply erases the offensive language and repairs the board.

His reaction is to say, "There are at least some people in Singapore who are taking notice of my crusade."

AMERICAN WHISKY—1484

Tokyo—(AP)—Japanese bootleggers are enterprising fellows, but they either don't know much about history or don't think their customers do.

U. S. army criminal investigation agents report finding a bottle of alleged bourbon whisky in a Tokyo nightclub with this label:

"Kingheather special blended whisky. Manufactured in Philadelphia. Famous since 1484."

Another bootlegger, an economy-minded type, cut liquor advertisements from an old American magazine and pasted them on his bottles as labels.

Still others do a fair job of counterfeiting labels but spoil the effect by using them indiscriminately on any sort of bottle, regardless of shape or size.

In all cases, it doesn't matter too much, as the bottles contain practically any liquid except whisky.

Admiral Peary's daughter, Marie, who was born in the Arctic Circle, received the nickname of "Snow Baby."

Rags Pull Up Subway Dwellers

Tokyo—(AP)—This is a story of rags—well, not quite rags, perhaps—but at least to a sort of socialistic-capitalistic security.

Go Yamaguchi was a member of Japan's highriding wartime Kempeitai, the thought police. He naturally lost his job when the thought police were abolished, and by 1947 he had descended, both literally and figuratively, broke, homeless and hungry, he was sleeping on a subway platform.

He began to pick up rags and old paper, selling them to a broker for a pittance. Yamaguchi was and is a worker. He tramped 20 miles or more a day, and he picked rags so industriously that he became the envy of other subway dwellers. He hired helpers, one by one.

These he banded into what he calls "The Association of Re-born People." The volume of their gleanings was so great that he began to sell direct to a paper mill, eliminating the middleman profit.

After wages and expenses, all surplus goes into an association "kitty."

Yamaguchi says that within a month there should be 300,000 yen in this fund. That is less than $1,000 as the yen's purchasing value goes, but he thinks it will be enough to build a two-story wooden building.

The first floor will be rented for shops, the second will be living quarters for the ragpickers, struggling up out of the subway at last.

Coyotes Lose One Dinner

Craig, Colo.—(AP)—Two civil air patrol pilots cheated a pair of coyotes out of an antelope dinner near here recently.

The fliers, Jay Brinker and P. Jones, were making a routine flight north of Craig. Brinker noticed two coyotes pussy-footing around a buck antelope which seemed to have its hind foot lifted high off the ground.

Brinker and Jones buzzed the area a couple of times and discovered the antelope's foot was caught between two strands of barbed wire. It had apparently tried to jump the wire fence. The coyotes were apparently waiting until the buck antelope became too weak to defend itself with its sharp front hooves.

The fliers returned to Craig and told Game Warden Bill Roland what they'd seen.

Then the three of them bundled into Roland's car and drove to a point within three miles of the antelope. They traveled the rest of the way on snowshoes, rescued the antelope by cutting the barbed wire. Taking it back to Craig they nursed it overnight and the next day the animal seemed in good shape.

Brinker suggested that since this particular antelope seemed "pretty much a fool" and unable to take care of itself properly, something should be done about it.

Warden Roland had the answer: He trusted the 150-pound buck, loaded it in the back of a truck, then began a tour of the region's mountain roads until he located a huge herd of antelope.

"When I let him out of the truck," Roland said, "he really high-tailed it for the herd. I guess he figured he'd never see his own folks again."

SOUND YOU CAN'T HEAR MAY SCARE BIRDS

Birmingham, England—(AP)—This city is trying something people can't hear to get rid of birds they can hear only too well.

Starlings around the civic center, 20,000 strong by estimates, chirp so loudly they're driving office workers and concertgoers to distraction. The city tried to shoo them away with loud noises—but they wouldn't shoo.

It tried to scare them off with stuffed owls—but they wouldn't scare.

Now, a council official says, engineers are experimenting with super-sonic waves.

"The engineers believe," he said hopefully, "that if they can find the right wavelength they will send the starlings packing."

5 Anniversaries Marked At Dinner At Bluffs Home

Bluffs—Three birthdays and two wedding anniversaries were marked at a family potluck dinner given at the Oscar Friesen home at Bluffs.

The honored guests were Oscar Friesen, Henry Friesen and Leroy Friesen, who were observing their birthday anniversaries and Mr. and Mrs. N. J. Moore and Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Moore, who were observing their wedding anniversaries.

Those present were Mr. and Mrs. N. J. Moore, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Friesen of Winchester, Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Moore and son, Roger, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Moore, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Friesen and Miss Loraine Watson.

Guests later in the day were Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Albright.

Mt. Zion Society Plans April Dinner

A potluck dinner for the first Sunday in April was planned by members of the W.S.C.S. of Mt. Zion church at their meeting held at the church. Friends are invited to attend the dinner, which is to begin at 12:30 p. m.

Mrs. Arthur Acorn, president, presided. The worship service was conducted by Mrs. Don Reinling. Mrs. W. B. Martin acted as program leader. Refreshments were served during the social. Several guests were present.

The next meeting will be held April 19 at the home of Mrs. Margaret Stout, 614 South Prairie street.

they have the floor for a speech they are not compelled to yield to another senator.

"During debate on a motion (to tie up a bill or resolution) x x x or matter which may be pending, the rules of the Senate provide that a senator can yield to another senator only for a question," the vice president explained.

"He is not required to yield for any purpose. He may yield only for the purpose of permitting another senator to ask him a question."

"If he yields for any other purpose and running debate ensues, which frequently happens, more or less by unanimous consent, and in violation of the rules, he may be taken from the floor by reason of the violation of the rules."

A long discussion followed. Some senators weren't quite sure they understood the rule. They were afraid they would be "taken from the floor" by violating a rule without knowing they were violating it.

The vice president suggested they might protect themselves by asking the unanimous consent of the other senators to permit another senator to interrupt them while they were talking.

Senator Hyden had the floor at this point. With the vice president's warning still fresh in his mind, he opened his speech this way:

"Mr. President, I now grant myself unanimous consent to proceed."

Crazed 800 Pound Bull Shot Near Arenzville

The 800-pound black Angus bull which went mad on the Albert Wessler farm, four miles west of Arenzville, and eluded hunters for eight days was shot Tuesday by A. H. Kleinschmidt, but not without a harrowing experience.

Tracks of the bull were seen by Art Anderson Tuesday morning near the edge of the timber on Wessler's farm. He soon spotted the bull in the timber and immediately called Wessler and A. H. Kleinschmidt of Arenzville.

Kleinschmidt, armed with a 351 Winchester, and Wessler rode a tractor which the bull immediately started to charge. Kleinschmidt's first shot, aimed at his heart, struck behind the bull's front legs and went completely through the animal who stumbled to his knees but rose to charge again.

Two more shots were fired quickly before the bull crumpled against the front wheel of the tractor. The shot to his head is believed to have been the fatal one.

Both Kleinschmidt and Wessler were "shaky" when they realized it was all over and the bull could charge them no more.

He was hauled into Zulauf's market in Arenzville where he was hung for display.

The bull had charged Jim Fischer and Earl Drinkwater Sunday, March 13, missing only by inches and then had disappeared. Men combed the area closely and had been through the timber where he was finally found many times. Willard Huss, of Beardstown, circled the area in his airplane. But no trace of the bull was found until he returned to the timber Tuesday.

The animal was in good condition, had lost no weight, and had evidently found plenty of food and water wherever he had been.

Kleinschmidt remarked he was glad they hadn't found him a week ago when they were afoot, because they could hardly have escaped uninjured.

Swift's
Mineral Supplement
BLOCK

Mineral feeding hits a new high in ease and economy with Swift's Mineral Supplement in block form. Perfected by Swift for cattle and sheep, the new mineral block meets these strict regulations:

- It's soft enough so animals get their mineral quota easily
- It's hard enough to resist weather
- It's easy to handle, easy to feed

In formula and quality the block is the same as the familiar Swift's Mineral Supplement in powdered form. It provides ten essential mineral elements all livestock need. It's held together by a palatable molasses binder. Swift's Mineral Supplement contains no fillers or waste. Every ingredient has feeding value.

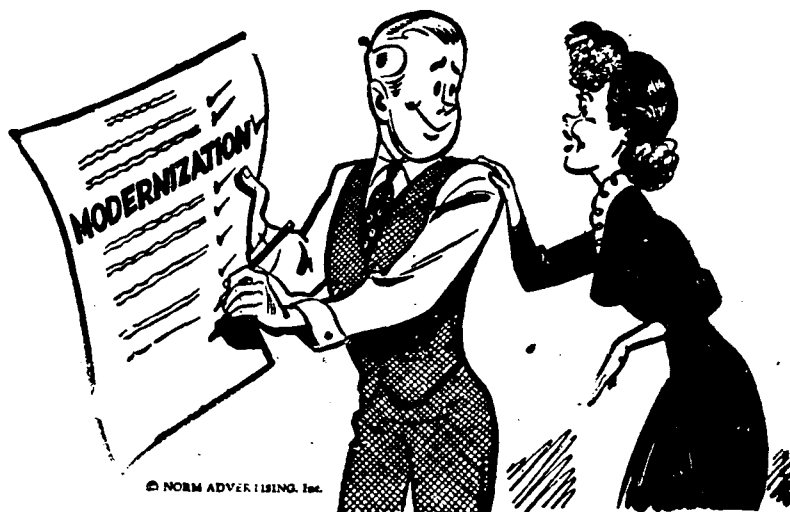

Supplies these ten profit-making elements:

- Manganese
- Iron
- Copper
- Cobalt
- Sodium
- Potassium
- Calcium
- Phosphorus
- Magnesium Sulphate
- Iodine

Harvard's Baker Award Conferred On George Perbix

The most distinguished honor which can be granted a graduate of Harvard University School of Business had been conferred upon George Perbix, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Perbix, 1430 Mound avenue.

Mr. Perbix is among the 16 men in the 1949 graduating class to be named George F. Baker Scholars. The Baker Award is the Harvard University School of Business equivalent to membership in Phi Beta Kappa.

GEORGE PERBIX

The tradition of recognizing and regarding high scholastic attainment by naming students George F. Baker Scholars is as old as Harvard University School of Business itself. It is exclusive with Harvard and can come to a student only through outstanding scholastic achievement and by the unanimous vote of the faculty.

The awards will be made at a dinner to be held at Harvard the latter part of March. All Baker Scholars, both faculty members and students, will be guests.

Mr. Perbix is a graduate of Chapin High school and received his B.S. degree in mathematics from the University of Illinois, where he became a member of Phi Beta Kappa.

He served three years in the U.S. Navy during World War II, attaining the rank of lieutenant (jg). He is majoring in marketing at Harvard and will graduate in June in the upper five per cent of his class.

POLISH ARMY MEN TOLD TO BE MARXISTS

Warsaw, Poland — (AP) — Polish army officers have been told they must be devout believers in Marxist-Leninist principles. Furthermore, they have been ordered to use all "propaganda devices" to sell that doctrine to all men under their command.

Col. Leon Grosfeld, writing in the Polish army newspaper "Polska Zbrojna," said:

"Our officers must come to realize that to work on the broadening of his mental horizon, to definitely shape his outlook upon life, that to study Marxism-Leninism is not something remote from the army and having no connection with it."

"He must realize that the better he has mastered Marxism-Leninism, the more rapid be his progress along the path of military excellence, the better will be his performance his professional duties, the better will he serve his country."

Mrs. D. F. Coultas, Esteemed Local Resident, Dies

Mrs. D. F. Coultas, well known resident of this community, passed away Thursday at 11:15 a. m. at Passavant hospital, following an extended illness.

Born near Markham on Dec. 2, 1879, Mrs. Coultas was the daughter of Isaac G. and Rachel Richardson Lazenby. She was married to D. F. Coultas on August 20, 1902.

He survives, together with two daughters, Mrs. Darrell Wilson, west of the city, and Miss Juanita Coultas, at home; one granddaughter, Lynda Sue Wilson; a sister, Miss Eva Lazenby, and a brother, John W. Lazenby, both of Jacksonville.

A sister, Mrs. Jennie Gilbert, preceded her in death.

Mrs. Coultas was widely known and was regarded with esteem by her many friends. She was a member of Wesley Chapel church, a past president of the Morgan County Garden club and had taken an active part in the Mound Unit of Home Bureau.

Funeral services will be held Saturday at 3 p. m. at the Williamson Funeral Home, with the Rev. Frank Marston officiating. Interment will be in Diamond Grove cemetery.

The family will receive friends at the funeral home from 7 to 9 p. m. Friday.

Reports On Red Cross Drive Bring Total To $6,458

Reports given Thursday morning at the first report meeting held during the current Red Cross fund campaign brought the total to $6,458.

Reports were given by Clarence Kirchhoefer, chairman of the special gifts division; Mildred George, schools and institutions; Fred C. Grey, business section; Wallace Hemmrough, county, and Reginald C. Reid, industrial division.

The meeting was held at the Dunlap hotel at 8 a. m. with Robert E. Spink, general chairman, presiding. Mr. Spink said that the reports were encouraging and that outstanding reports assured the attainment of the goal set by National Red Cross headquarters.

The campaign will be in progress until March 31.

New Look Fading, Slim Silhouette Now Reappearing

The new look seems to be through and the slim silhouette appears to be on the way back, according to fall fashion trends noticed in the second annual fashion fair at New York.

Now more than ever women are trying frantically to take off the extra bulges.

In recent months many weight-reducing preparations have appeared on the market, some of them based on "the diet and vitamin plan," which means cut down on the intake of food and fortify with vitamins for hunger distress.

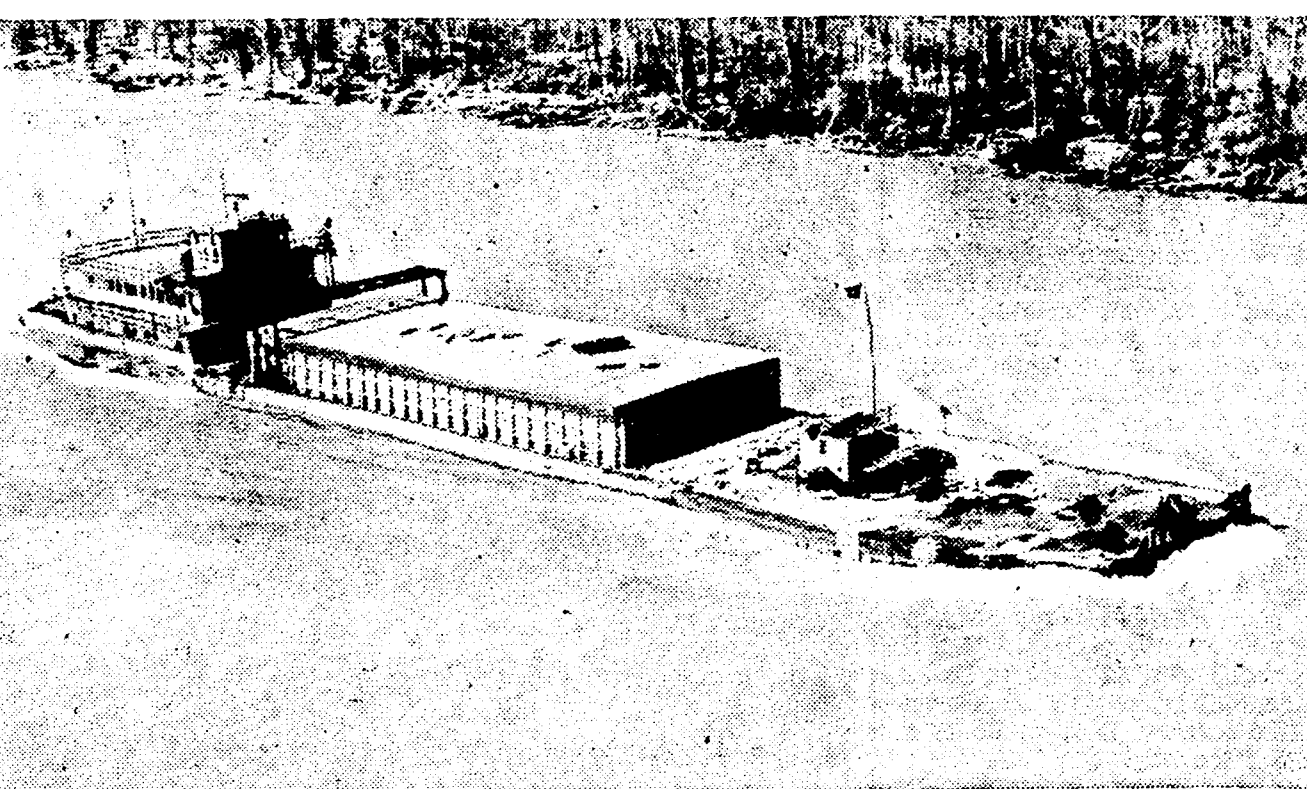

A survey among drug stores in Illinois shows that one preparation, Rennel, which is the outstanding seller in the reducing field, is not based on this vitamin plan.

Any Illinois druggist can supply you with 4 ounces of Rennel. Just add this to 12 ounces of canned grapefruit juice and take according to directions. No starvation diet.

The makers of Rennel guarantee to refund your money if the very first bottle does not show you the simple, easy way to lose bulky fat and help regain slender, more graceful curves.

Four ounces of Rennel costs little and hundreds of Illinois women have highly endorsed it.

She Failed to Beat the Record of the Robert E. Lee

Racing upstream against strong Mississippi River currents, the diesel-powered Harry Truman failed to beat the record of the famed Robert E. Lee. The Lee ended its historic race along a 1051-mile course in three days, 18 hours and 14 minutes in 1870.

The Truman, pushing one barge laden with 1100 tons of cargo, failed to match that speed by one hour and 16 minutes, although the distance from New Orleans to St. Louis is now considerably shorter due to changes in the river channel. Here, the modern barge is shown 80 miles north of Memphis, Tenn.

African Mission Worker To Speak Here, At Concord

The Rev. Thomas A. O'Farrell, Methodist missionary to Africa, will tell of his more than 30 years of experiences in Africa and of the changes that have taken place on the continent during that time in a series of three addresses to be given in this area.

His first address will be given Sunday morning and evening, April 3, at the Methodist church in Concord. On Monday, April 4, he will speak at Jacksonville high school at 10:20 a. m. and at Centenary Methodist church at 7:30 p. m.

Rev. O'Farrell, a native of Panama, is superintendent of the Nyadiri District of the Southern Rhodesia Annual conference in Africa. He has been a missionary to Africa since his graduation from Northwestern university in 1910.

In Nyadiri he has been instrumental in erecting a boarding school for boys, another for girls, a baby-fold, a hospital, and a large church and now maintains a demonstration farm of 4,000 acres.

Murrayville Club Votes Donation To Crippled Children

A donation for the Crippled Children's Foundation was voted by the Murrayville Domestic Science club at its meeting held Wednesday afternoon with Mrs. C. J. Wright.

The meeting was called to order by the president, Mrs. L. C. Collins. The collect was given by Mrs. H. G. Strang. Mrs. Wright led in the pledge to the flag.

Thirteen members and one guest, Mrs. Penn Wright, responded to roll call by naming a flower they had successfully raised. A paper on "Wonders of Wood" was given by Mrs. Fred Simpson. Mrs. Walter Hanback, chairman of the radio department, read an article pertaining to that subject. A letter from a newspaperwoman in Holland, describing life in her country, was read by Mrs. Simpson.

The meeting closed with "The American Creed," led by Mrs. S. C. Martin. During the social period, refreshments were served by the hostesses assisted by Mrs. Strang, and Mrs. J. L. Solomon.

The next meeting will be held April 5 with Mrs. Mary Kennedy.

Sangamon Jury Awards $20,689 To Waverly Man

A Sangamon county circuit court jury on Wednesday awarded Delbert DeLong of Waverly damages of $20,689 in his suit against Irving Keith Hart of Waverly and James E. Dietrich of Chandlerville. The jury was out three hours.

The trial at Springfield, which lasted three days, ended at 2:15 p.m., and the verdict was returned at 5 p.m.

The defendant, Hart, was found guilty of wilful and wanton conduct in connection with the three-car collision near Waverly in which the plaintiff's wife, Mrs. Emma DeLong was fatally injured. The accident occurred Nov. 28, 1947, on Route 104 east of Waverly.

As administrator of his wife, DeLong was awarded $15,000, and individually, $5,689.

Two persons died of injuries in the accident, the other, Mrs. Dorothy Dietrich, wife of James E. Dietrich, and three persons were injured.

KING GUSTAF 90, FINDS LIFE OF KING TOO PUBLIC

Sweden's Monarch, vacationing at Nice on the French Riviera, watches a tennis match with one of his entourage. He doesn't enjoy being a spectator; he'd rather be just another spectator.

By DAVID S. BOYER

NEA Staff Correspondent
Nice, France—(NEA)—Living like a king isn't all it's cracked up to be. Some kings—and Gustaf V of Sweden is one of them—would gladly trade places for a while with an ordinary citizen.

At age 90, King Gustaf, who is here soaking up Riviera sunshine on his annual vacation, makes no bones about the fact he'd like to slide into a porch chair without a doctor and nurse and half a dozen other assistants hovering around him. He'd like to go to a tennis match and be just a spectator, not something for the spectators to speculate about.

Speculation is in the minds of the thousands of Frenchmen and tourists in Nice who occasionally catch a glimpse of the tall, gaunt titular head of the independent Swedish nation as he motors along the beach drive in his 12-cylinder Packard. Everyone is wondering how much longer this venerable old man, who still musters a smile and a royal wave for the crowd, will be able to maintain sufficient health for public appearances.

Used To Be Participant

The king, meanwhile, coughs raspingly against the bronchial tickling in his throat, and recalls the days, not so many years ago, when he wasn't a tennis spectator, but a full-fledged participant. This is the first year in 41 consecutive visits to the Riviera (not including the war years) when he has not staged a vigorous show on a tennis court.

This year, the king, who was French-born and whose father came before him to the Hotel d'Angleterre in Nice, is confining his activities to tea parties, knitting, motoring and bridge. Even for these pursuits, he is pursued.

More than 500 anxious people silently watched him step falteringly onto a royal carpet from his special railroad car on his arrival here. Each day, they watch with concern as he hobbles to his limousine, helped usually by his personal physician, Dr. Hjalmar Casserman, and bundled into a furry auto robe by his private nurse.

Frowns On Escort

King Gustaf won't allow an escort to precede him on his drives. He pretends not to notice the entourage of police, reporters and friends who drive after him.

Half a dozen of France's best secret service guards surround and follow him wherever he goes.

This is a vacation for the plain-clothesmen, too, for the king only goes out for two hours a day. Jean Baldy, who has trailed important persons through France for 15 years, can remember the days before the war, however, when guarding King Gustaf was no vacation.

"We used to start early in the morning," he remembers, "and finish early in the morning. The king could stay with a party or over a Monte Carlo roulette wheel with the best of them. I've guarded Trotsky, the Duke and Walli, King Leopold, Boris of Bulgaria, the presidents of France, King Farouk and Madame Peron. None of them could hold a candle to Gustaf."

Describes Life As Girl In England

First-hand descriptions of customs and scenes in England were given by Miss Peggy Abbott, a sophomore at MacMurray College, at a supper meeting of the Delta Tri-Hi-Y club Wednesday evening at the Youth Center. Miss Abbott lived in England until she was nine years old.

Betty Townsley, president, was in charge of the club meeting. The 22 girls in attendance made plans for an overnight party Friday night, March 25, at the MacMurray cabin. Mary Jane Bailey acted as program chairman.

$15,000 Damages Sought In Suit Against Driver

Damages of $15,000 under two counts are sought in a suit filed here in circuit court by G. Leonard Hills, administrator of the estate of Clarissa R. Hills, against Charles Preston.

The complaint sets forth that Clarissa R. Hills, mother of the administrator, was struck and injured by a car driven by the defendant on Sept. 20, 1948. The accident occurred on South Main street in South Jacksonville. Mrs. Hills died Jan. 5, 1949, as a direct result of her injuries, according to allegations in the suit.

Edward J. Flynn is attorney for the administrator.

Three Slumping Sophomores Could Help Giants To Climb

Kentucky Heavily Favored To Whip Aggies Saturday

Seattle, March 24.—(P)—The east came west last night, ready to give the Oklahoma A. & M. and all the points you think you'll need to beat Kentucky in the N.C.A.A. basketball championships Saturday night.

Eastern coaches were so far gone on the Wildcats, kings of the Atlantic side of the basketball country, they were talking with a southern drawl.

"They're Great"—Combs
On the modest side was Harry Combs of Illinois, who said of the Kentuckians who walloped his Illini Tuesday night: "They're a great ball club."

Ned Irish, impresario of Madison Square Garden, hit the popular chord when he said Kentucky is "the best there is."

Coach Adolph Rupp of Kentucky said of his eastern-drafted national title: "They're tired."

After the 111-hour plane ride from New York there was hardly a smile in the entire east of Kentucky and Illinois highboys.

Illinois Plays Oregon State

Illinois meets Oregon State for third place nationally.

The National Association of Basketball Coaches huddled this morning in the opening round of a three-day convention. The hottest talk is expected to buzz around the rules on fouls in the last two minutes of play.

Sentiment was strong for making a team shoot all its free throws in the final minutes. At present it may choose to take the ball out of bounds, thus retaining the control it would lose by scoring from the charity line—and might lose in a waffle after a missed free throw.

Hornets Complete Coaching Staff With Bo Molenda

Chicago, March 24.—(P)—Ray Flaherty, coach of the Chicago Hornets of the All-American football conference, today completed his coaching staff by signing Bo Molenda, as backfield coach.

A veteran of professional football since the days of Red Grange's New York Yankees in 1927, Molenda has seen action both as a player and assistant coach for the New York Giants and Green Bay Packers. During the war, he coached the powerful San Diego naval training station team.

In intercollegiate football, Molenda was an outstanding fullback at the University of Michigan.

Flaherty's coaching staff include Jim Barber and Wayne Miller, both of whom worked with Flaherty on the Washington Redskins. Barber will serve as line coach, with Miller handling the ends.

Expects DeLong To Top Collegiate Scoring Record

River Falls, Wis., March 24.—(P)—George Schlagenhauf said tonight he's not worried about how many points Brooms Abramovic made in setting the collegiate basketball career scoring record.

"My boy, Nate DeLong, is a pretty good bet to set a new one anyway," commented Schlagenhauf. River Falls Teachers College coach. "He still has one semester to play and he had 2,941 points now. I don't see how he can miss."

Abramovic is credited with 2,161 points in 96 games during his four years at Salem (W. Va.) college. His coach, though, says the Salem record book shows 2,170 points.

DeLong, a big center, scored 650 in 27 games this year. He had 618 in 22 tilts the season before and 463 in 22 during the 1946-47 campaign as a freshman in 1943, before entering the navy after one semester, he hit 310 points in 15 games. That adds to 2,041 points in 86 games for an average of 23.7, more than a full point better than Abramovic's record pace.

Durocher plans to work Jack at various points in the infield, but his third season may be the toughest. Especially so if Bill Rigney, regular second sacker, recovers from the injuries which plagued him last season, and a heart attack which struck this spring.

Even tougher is the task facing Hartung, the much publicized Hondo (Tex.) Hurricane who auspiciously entered the New York scene two seasons back. He first started as an outfielder, but couldn't field. Mel Ott, then Giant pilot, tried him in a pitcher's role. Hartung won nine games with a fast ball his only weapon. He also proved useful as a pinch batter and ended the season with a .309 average.

Last year the fast ball wasn't enough and he took some poundings from opposing batsmen. His own hitting fell off and he sometimes found himself being removed for a pinch stickman.

Hartung, himself, remains unsure of his role and unfortunately under the rules of baseball can't be farmed out for much needed experience.

Phils, With Richie Ashburn, Edge Red Birds In 11th 5-4

St. Petersburg, Fla., March 24.—(P)—With speedy Richie Ashburn scoring the winning run from second on an infield hit, the Philadelphia Phils defeated the St. Louis Cardinals 5-4 today in an exhibition contest that went 11 innings.

The decisive blow was a hot ground single by former Cardinal Dick Sisler. Second Baseman Red Schoendienst made a diving glove stop but recovered slowly and Ashburn beat his throw to the plate.

Brownies Blank N.Y. Giants 2 To 0

Burbank, Calif., March 24.—(P)—Irving Medlinger and Red Embree of the St. Louis Browns combined to shut out the New York Giants 2 to 0 and gain an exhibition victory today.

Doubles by Ken Wood and Jack Graham in the fourth produced a run for the Browns off Sheldon Jones. With Clint Hartung pitching, St. Louis got another tally in the sixth on three walks and an infield out.

The mass production methods at Vero Beach, Fla., so resemble Army life that Bruce Edwards tries a hand at KP duty. The Brooks catcher spends most of the day hustling around Dodgers' four practice fields.

Middlecoff Leads Field Of 150 In Greensboro Open

Greensboro, N. C., March 24.—(P)—The $10,000 Greensboro open, final event on the golf calendar before the classic Augusta Masters, gets under way tomorrow with Memphis Dentist Cary Middlecoff leading the field of 150.

The 28-year-old Middlecoff, hot-tempered thing on the circuit since Ben Hogan was forced out of action by an automobile accident, has finished one-two in his last five tournaments. He's won three and lost two others, each by one stroke.

The leading money winner of the year with over $6,000 in earnings, Middlecoff, will have to contend with such stars as Lloyd Mangrum, Dutch Harrison, Sammy Snead and South African Bobby Locke.

Eighteen-hole rounds tomorrow and Saturday and a 36-hole Sunday windup are carded.

Eddleman Most Valuable In Big Nine Loop

Champaign, Ill., March 24.—(P)—Captain Dwight Eddleman, of the University of Illinois Western Conference basketball championship team, has been elected most valuable player in the Big Nine.

The Illini are in Seattle, Wash., where they meet Oregon State Saturday for third place in the NCAA finals.

Eddleman, who also was selected most valuable Illinois player by his teammates, was chosen for the Big Nine honor today by Western Conference coaches, officials, Kenneth (Tug) Wilson, conference commissioner, and Arch Ward and Wilfrid Smith of the Chicago Tribune, which annually presents the award.

Eddleman, Centralia, Ill., high school graduate, finished the 22 games of Illinois' regular 1948-49 season with 301 points, four less than the Illinois record set by Andy Phillip in 1943.

Eddleman is also a standout in track and football. He has received four track awards at Illinois and finished second in the Olympic high jump last summer in London.

Springfield Club President Gives Kiwanis Address

Bryant Hadley, president of the Springfield Kiwanis club, delivered a stirring address Thursday to Jacksonville Kiwanians on the subject of Kiwanis education and fellowship.

Mr. Hadley, a distinguished architect and civil leader, told the club members that the ideals of Kiwanis International are essentially the ideals of America.

Chester Colton, chairman of the educational committee of the Jacksonville club, introduced the speaker.

Pres. Charles N. Wright announced that the Virginia club will bring the traveling gavel here next Thursday and provide a program furthering inter-club relations.

Washington will face the winner of the Baltimore-New York series for the B.A.A. eastern division championship next week.

Joliet Advances In National Meet

Hutchinson, Kans., March 24.—(P)—Joliet, Ill., eliminated Tifton, Ga., with a 64 to 57 victory in the National Junior College Basketball tournament today.

The Abraham Baldwin stallions were the second team to be ousted. Joliet led 33 to 26 at halftime.

Tomorrow Joliet will play the winner of tonight's Sayre, Okla.-Campbellsville, Ky. game.

California's production of gold and mercury leads the 48 states.

Higher most of the day included Republic Steel, General Motors, Goodrich, Montgomery Ward, International Harvester, J. C. Penney, Radio Corp., Pennsylvania, Chesapeake & Ohio and Nickel Plate.

Leaning to the minus side were Chrysler, Commonwealth Edison, Westinghouse Electric and Standard Oil (N.J.).

Corporate bonds tended upward with stocks. U. S. governments held firm in over-the-counter dealings.

Markets at a Glance

Kuhel Says Robinson, Haynes, Klieman Will Move Senators Up

Orlando, Fla., March 24.—(P)—Joey Kuhel, sophomore pilot of the Washington Senators, thinks his seventh placers of 1948 are a cinch to finish higher this year.

Kuhel, an amateur magician when he isn't burdened with baseball problems, believes he pulled a couple of rabbits out of the hat when he engineered the winter trade for first baseman Eddie Robinson and pitchers Joe Haynes and Ed Klieman.

He also likes the deal that brought shortstop Sam Dente from the St. Louis Browns.

"We definitely improved our pitching, first base and shortstop situation," he said today. "Our outfield is 100 per cent stronger in every way than last year. We have a hustling ball club with more power than we had a year ago. We're going to win many of those games we lost by one run in '48."

Kuhel was especially pleased with Buddy Lewis' decision to return to baseball. The hard-hitting 32-year-old outfielder, who retired at the end of the 1947 season, has been the leader on the club during the exhibition games.

"Lewis looks wonderful," enthused Kuhel. "He's going to help us a lot. So is Robinson, whom we got from Cleveland along with Haynes and Klieman. Robby is certain to give us more power than Mickey Vernon did. Our chief need last year was a fellow who could hit a home run for us occasionally. Robby is the boy who could do it."

Along with Robinson, the infield set-up is Al Kozar at second, Dente at short, and Eddie Yost at third. Kozar and Yost are holdovers. Dente figures to be an improvement over the veteran mark Christman, who operated at short for the Senators last year. He is eight years Christman's junior and much speedier.

The regular outfield trio will be Lewis in right, Gil Coan in center and Ed Stewart in left. Clyde Volmer, drafted from Syracuse; John Simmons, another International League graduate; and holdover Sherry Robertson, figure to stick as secondary picketmen.

Lakeland, Fla., March 24.—(P)—With Virgil Trucks and Lefty Hand Ted Gray limiting the losers to seven hits, the Detroit Tigers shut out the New York Yankees, 5-0, in an exhibition game today.

The Tigers scored four runs off the southpaw offerings of Ed Lopat, who pitched the first six innings for Casey Stengel's men. Tom Byrne, another lefty, nipped the final two innings for the Yankees, and gave up the other Tiger run.

Braves Beat Home Town Rivals, Red Sox, In 8-4 Game

Brantford, Fla., March 24.—(P)—Boston's Braves, who haven't been doing too well against other competition, today dumped their home town rival Red Sox for the second time, winning 8-4.

The Tribe hit timely and took advantage of wildness by Sox hurlers Joe Dobson and Dave Ferriss.

Winning pitcher Johnny Sain was touched for seven hits in the first five innings but was strong with men on base. Only score off Big John was in the third inning when Dom DiMaggio slugged an inside-the-park home run to right center.

Guy Coultas Suffers Fatal Heart Attack

Guy Coultas, an employee of Per-bix & Anderson Implement dealers, Jacksonville, suffered a heart attack while at work yesterday afternoon at 5:15 p.m. and died enroute to the hospital.

Mr. Coultas, the son of Robert and Martha Tankersley Coultas, was born in Riggsport, Ill., August 23, 1888.

He was united in marriage to Dinda Evans, December 26, 1916, and to this union four children were born, who, with the wife, survive. They include Martha Jane Lane, Clinton; William Robert, Franklin; Dean E., with the airtight services in Germany; and Betty Geist, Jacksonville. Also surviving are six grandchildren, one brother Orville, Jacksonville, and two sisters, Mrs. Sciota Bergschneider, Jacksonville, and Miss Lucy Coultas, Washington, D. C.

The Coultas family resided on the North Main road in Jacksonville. The remains were taken to the Williamson Funeral Home. Funeral plans are incomplete and will be announced later.

Establish Office In Jacksonville For Vets' Bonus

North Dakota veterans of World War II now residing in Illinois will be able to obtain bonus applications at offices of the Illinois Veterans' Commission about April 1. Bonus payments are scheduled to begin July 1.

The newly-enacted bonus measure of North Dakota has exceptionally liberal residence requirements, permitting veterans to collect even though they left the state prior to induction. However, legal residence must have been maintained for eligibility.

Reasoning behind the liberal provisions is based on the realization that many residents left the state temporarily, prior to induction, to work in out-of-state war plants. North Dakota had few war industries.

Bonus payments are: $12.50 a month for domestic service; $17.50 for foreign service. Service dates for eligibility are January 1, 1941 and January 1, 1946, inclusive.

In the case of veterans who died in service, survivors shall be paid at the regular rate with an added provision that no beneficiary will be paid less than $600.

Information and assistance in filing for bonus payments of any state can be obtained at service offices of the Illinois Veterans' Commission. In Morgan county the service office is located at 6-7 Morrison Block in Jacksonville.

Illinois National Guard Will Begin Field Training

Springfield, Ill., March 24—(P)—The Illinois National Guard will begin its 1949 summer field training program July 23 at Camp McCoy, Wis., adjutant General Leo M. Boyle announced today.

More than 18,000 guardsmen, most of them members of the 33rd and 44th infantry divisions, are expected to take part in the exercises.

The 66th Fighter Wing, Guard Air Unit, will train Aug. 6 to 20 at Camp Williams near Wisconsin Dells, Wis. Fliers and service crews from Peoria, Chicago and Springfield will take part.

Assigned to Camp McCoy July 23 to Aug. 6 were the 33rd division, the 178th regimental combat team and the 623rd quartermaster group, all Chicago outfits.

Following these troops to camp Aug. 13-27 will be the 44th division, the 109th anti-aircraft brigade with elements from Chicago and Bloomington and the 106th cavalry reconnaissance squadron with units from Springfield and Urbana.

Funeral services for Charles L. Korsmeyer were held at Immanuel Lutheran church at Arenzville Thursday. They were preceded by brief services at the family residence. The Rev. J. Schlichting officiated.

Music was furnished by a quartet composed of Ella Tegeder, Mrs. Marvin Ommen, John Alhorn and John Lovkamp, who sang "Beneath the Cross of Jesus" and "Beloved, It Is Well." They were accompanied at the organ by Mrs. Leona Frick.

Caring for the floral tributes were Mrs. Lydia Kunzeman, Viola Korsmeyer, Lorna Fricks, LeVern Lovekamp and Mrs. Ruby Schaefer. The pallbearers were Wilbur Korsmeyer, Arthur Roegge, Elmer Hoffmeier, Orval Frick, Delmar Lovekamp and Glen Lovkamp.

Interment was in the Immanuel Lutheran cemetery.

War Dads Donate $25 To Boy's Town At Regular Meet

The Jacksonville chapter of War Dads voted to give $25 to Boys Town, Nebraska, at their regular monthly meeting Thursday evening.

Devoting the entire meeting to a resume of Father Flanagan's great work in building Boys' Town, the chapter heard a number of speakers including Dr. Kalkoff, and Father Lydon, of the Murrayville parish.

After the business session, the club viewed some interesting movies showing Florida scenery, as presented by Mr. Loren Moody.

Beardstown Horse Show Is Slated For May 29-30

Beardstown — The Beardstown Rotary club has announced the date of their third annual society horse show as May 29 and 30. The show will convene both afternoon and evening during these two days.

The event will get underway with a huge parade Sunday afternoon immediately followed by a showing of the western classes. Sunday evening, and the two shows Monday, will consist of eight society class events, including jumping exhibitions.

Some of the finest exhibitors in this area have entered their stock in this show in an effort to take home a portion of the $2000 in prize cash.

The show ring at the Beardstown athletic field is of regulation size with fine lighting facilities and seating arrangements. Exhibitors appearing in the show for the first time will be pleased with the accommodations provided for their horses.

Nationally famed "Old Cape Jones" will be present both days to provide a maximum of enjoyment with his Hammond organ.

Former Waverly Resident Killed As Cars Collide

Mrs. Jack Smith and Mrs. William Brown, both of Divernon, were killed shortly before 10 a.m. today in an automobile collision one mile west of Divernon. Details of the accident were not immediately available. Mrs. Brown was a former resident of Waverly.

An eyewitness reported to the coroner that Mrs. Brown was driving a truck and Mrs. Smith a passenger car. One of the cars was traveling north and the second car west.

Mrs. John Hall, also of Divernon, a passenger in the Brown vehicle, was reportedly injured in the crash. The deaths of Mrs. Smith and Mrs. Brown brought the traffic fatalities in the small community to three within the last 24 hours. James Galloway, 65, was killed last night by an automobile as he was walking on Route 66 about two miles south of Divernon.

Social Events

Miss Lois Martin Honored at Shower Waverly—Miss Lois Martin was guest of honor at a bridal shower held recently at the home of her sister, Mrs. Wayne Crank.

Contests were held during the afternoon with prizes awarded to Mrs. Lowell Pitchford, Mrs. Don Ryan and Mrs. Russell Ladage.

The bride-to-be received many lovely and useful gifts.

Mrs. Clyde Jones and Mrs. Clifford Woods assisted the hostess in serving refreshment.

Guests present included Mrs. Anna Mansfield, Mrs. Louis Gotschall and Miss Wanda Votsmeier of Jacksonville, Mrs. Ethel Beatty, Mrs. J. M. Simms, Mrs. Heye Martin, Mrs. Winnie Prickett, Mrs. W. W. Tribble, Mrs. Elmer Stewart, Mrs. Clyde Jones, Mrs. William Mahan, Mrs. Walter McCrady, Mrs. Gene McClain and Mrs. Clifford Woods.

CARD OF THANKS
I wish to thank the doctors, nurses and all who sent flowers and cards during my stay at Passavant hospital.

Mrs. Walter E. Brown

Swedish Smorgasbord Sponsored Last Night By Church Guild

Members of the Isabella Beecher Guild of Congregational church sponsored a smorgasbord supper at the church last night. For the event Guild members wore colorful Swedish costumes of authentic design, with bright aprons and bodices and white lace caps, representing the various areas of Sweden.

'Glenn Smith Day' Is Celebrated By Pittsfield Fans

Pittsfield—Pittsfield citizens plan to rally Friday, March 25, and celebrate Glenn Smith day in honor of their high school coaches outstanding success in guiding the Saukville quintet to a berth in the "sweet sixteen" tourney at Champaign this year.

Coach Smith, in taking the Pittsfield basketball team to the state meet, enjoys the distinction of being the second coach to accomplish this task with a Pike county team. Pittsfield sent an entry to the championship meet 27 years ago. Smith was similarly touted in 1936, when, as coach of the Columbia, Mo., prep team, he guided them into the Missouri finals.

Alan Mettenrich, former principal of the Bluffs school system, is superintendent of schools in Pittsfield.

Funeral Rites For S-Sgt. Paul Kreig In Beardstown

Virginia — Funeral services for S/Sgt. Paul W. Kreig, who was killed in action June 24, 1945, on Okinawa, were held Thursday at the First Lutheran church of Beardstown. The Rev. Kenneth Knudson officiated. Burial was in the Beardstown City cemetery.

Caring for the many floral offerings were Mrs. Iva Brown, Mrs. Lloyd Schroeder, Mrs. Kenneth Cox, and Miss Iva Lancaster.

Casket-bearers were Robert Brown, Kenneth Fiedler, Kenneth Cox, Lloyd Schroeder, Dale Fish, and Carroll Reichert.

Two vocal selections, "God's Tomorrow," and "Just as I Am," by Mr. and Mrs. William Mueller and Mr. and Mrs. Weber assisted by William Huffman at the organ.

Walter Reid Post of American Legion conducted military rites at the cemetery.

Recreation Club Plans Fish-Fry For April Fifth

The Jacksonville Recreation Club held its regular bi-monthly meeting at the Jay-Cee restaurant last night.

Extensive plans for inaugurating the summer softball campaigns in both the senior and junior leagues were formed by the club during the three-hour session. Committees working to develop these leagues gave lengthy reports on their progress.

The club will hold a fish-fry at DeSilva's restaurant on Tuesday, April 5. Tickets will be on sale with the club members or at DeSilva's cafe in the near future, and the fry is open to the public. Serving will be from 11 a.m. to 11 p.m. Club members will do the serving.

Wally Baptist, president of the group, appointed Charles DeSilva to head the committee in charge of this event, and named Louis Katz, Ralph Cowgur and Earl Moore to assist.

Committee chairman reported that there are still openings in both the senior and junior softball leagues, and wish to urge new teams to accept invitations into these softball leagues.

The junior group, who plays on the north-side diamond, and which is limited to boys 16 or under, will have two leagues this year—the American and National, and have invited two out-of-town teams to compete in each of the leagues.

The senior committee reported that they plan to call another meeting of managers in the near future, and ask the various team representatives to keep in contact with them, as plans for getting the softball season underway progress.

Meradosia—Fred Keenen Welch, 74, died Thursday at 8 a.m. at the Green Convalescent Home in Jacksonville. He had been a resident of Meradosia for several years.

Surviving are three brothers, Austin of Beardstown, Clay of Albany, Ill., and Christopher C. of Detroit, Mich., and a sister, Mrs. Florence Nagel, also of Detroit.

The remains are at the Schaefer Funeral Home in Meradosia, where funeral services will be held Saturday at 2 p.m. Burial will be in City cemetery at Beardstown.

Russia Replaces Minister Of Armed Forces In Shakeup

London, March 24—(P)—The Soviet Union announced tonight that Marshal Alexander M. Vassilievsky, 49, has succeeded Marshal Nikolai A. Bulganin as minister of the armed forces—the highest military post in all of Russia.

This was the first big change in Soviet military leadership since Prime Minister Stalin stepped down as minister of the armed forces in 1947 and appointed Bulganin to succeed him. Stalin ran the armed forces during the war.

The new shift followed top level changes in the Soviet political hierarchy in the last few weeks. The most important was the release of V. M. Molotov as foreign minister to be succeeded by Andrei Y. Vishinsky. Molotov remained as first deputy prime minister—right at Stalin's side.

Western observers in Moscow viewed these changes as measures to strengthen the highest ranks of Soviet policy makers.

Bulganin is also a vice chairman of the council of ministers of the Soviet Union—a deputy prime minister.

The smorgasbord, or hors d'oeuvres, is a traditional part of a Swedish meal, and can be traced back through ancient annals, not only in the history of the art of cookery, but also in that of the Swedish ceremony of feasting. The words mean bread and butter on the table. All Swedish Recipes

There, the smorgasbord is partaken just before the regular meal and offers a choice of different foods arranged on a separate table. Here, the idea has been taken up with emphasis on this feature and the number of items greatly increased. The menu last night included thirty-five distinct dishes, all Swedish recipes, many of which were imported.

The tables, attractively decorated in blue and yellow and centered with tulips and the walls covered with posters of Sweden, obtained from the Swedish embassy, gave the room an air of festivity.

Servers In Costume

Mrs. Lawrence Paset is president of the Guild. The boys and girls of her Sunday school class, also dressed in costume, served. They included Judy Kurtz, Debby Stratton, Barbara Mundt, Betty Armin, Gretchen Engelbach, Jim Mills and Dick Beasley.

A capacity crowd of 115 guests were served, and many would-be diners were turned away from the doors because of the over-crowded conditions.

Members of the Guild are Mrs. Vorce Bassett, Mrs. Claude Beasley, Mrs. W. H. Biege, Mrs. Ellsworth Black, Mrs. Joe Boyle, Mrs. Truman Carter, Mrs. Fred Causey, Mrs. J. L. Clements, Mrs. Myrtle Coulson, Mrs. Crosby, Miss Edith Dahman, Mrs. George Drennan, Mrs. W. A. Fay, Mrs. A. R. Gregory, Mrs. Chester Hemphill, Mrs. Eugene Keefe, Mrs. Wilbur Kurtz, Miss Marianne Landon, Mrs. E. B. Marshall, Mrs. Charles Martin, Mrs. Sarah Mearns, Mrs. Arnold Meyer, Mrs. T. H. Pratt, Mrs. David Watson, and Mrs. Edith Wilson.

Winchester Grade School Will Give Operetta Friday

Winchester — "Paints and Patches," a musical comedy in two acts, will be presented by the choral club of the Winchester Grade School at 8 p.m., Friday in the high school auditorium. The operetta will be presented under the direction of five faculty advisers.

The music is under the direction of Miss Paula Coenen; Costumes, Mrs. Mary Gilliam; Speaking Parts, Mrs. Barbara Redshaw; Stage Manager, Paul Gilliam; and Publicity (art), Mrs. Mary Taylor. The cast includes Lloyd Summers, Suzanne Hazelrigg, Dixie Campbell, Hazelrigg, Lloyd Ryan, Danny Hazelrigg, Bruce Little, Irma Batley, Joy Coultas, Dorothy Smith, Charlotte Woodson, Joyce Campbell, Darrell Plowman, Vincent Willis, Charles Leedy, and Gary Pullings.

Winchester teen-agers are invited to the Legion Building in Winchester for Sunday afternoon recreation programs. The juke box, ping pong and other games provide good entertainment. The program will be chaperoned each week by a legion member.

Meredosia Man Dies Thursday

Meradosia—Fred Keenen Welch, 74, died Thursday at 8 a.m. at the Green Convalescent Home in Jacksonville. He had been a resident of Meradosia for several years.

Surviving are three brothers, Austin of Beardstown, Clay of Albany, Ill., and Christopher C. of Detroit, Mich., and a sister, Mrs. Florence Nagel, also of Detroit.

The remains are at the Schaefer Funeral Home in Meradosia, where funeral services will be held Saturday at 2 p.m. Burial will be in City cemetery at Beardstown.

Laurence Oliver, Jane Wyman Win Academy Awards

Hollywood, March 24—(P)—Laurence Oliver won the academy award tonight for the best male acting performance of 1948 for his role of "Hamlet" in the J. Arthur Rank British production.

Jane Wyman won the best actress award for her deaf mute part in "Johnny Belinda."

John Huston was named the best director for "The Treasure of Sierra Madre."

Oliver was not present to receive his award. Miss Wyman declared: "I accept this award very gratefully for keeping my mouth shut once. I think I'll do it again."

"Hamlet," which won several minor awards, also was adjudged the best picture of the year.

Huston Wins Supporting Award

The veteran Walter Huston won the Oscar for the best male supporting performance of the year in "The Treasure of Sierra Madre," directed by his son, John. He played a grizzled gold prospector, pal of Humphrey Bogart and Tim Holt.

"Many years ago," said Huston, "I raised a son. I told him if you ever become a writer or director, please find a part for your old man. He did."

Claire Trevor, another veteran, won the best supporting actress award for her trampish role as Edward G. Robinson's girl friend in "Key Largo."

Zukor Wins Special Award

Adolph Zukor, a pioneer in movies, won a special award for his service to the industry over 40 years. Sid Grauman, called a "master showman who raised the standards of motion pictures" in the presentation speech by Academy President Jean Hersholt, won another special award. Said the white-haired Grauman: "When I have my 35th 'SIC' birthday, I'll look back and say they didn't forget me."

Producer Walter Wagner won a special trophy "for distinctive service adding stature to the industry for his picture, 'Joan of Arc.'"

Wagner said "I can accept this only in the name of my partners, 'Miss Ingrid Bergman and Victor Fleming.'"

The Irving G. Thalberg memorial award for "the most consistent high quality of pictures," went to Jerry Wald, Warner Bros. producer.

Announce Meeting Of Professional Women, March 27

Miss Mary Postlewait, chairman of district seven, which comprises the business and professional women's clubs of Jacksonville, Carrollton, Havana, Beardstown, Rushville, Pittsfield and Quincy, announces a meeting, which will be held Sunday, March 27, at Beardstown. Dinner will be served at 12:30 p.m. in the Marching and Chowder cafe on Main street.

Mrs. Ruth Jones, state president of the organization will speak. Other state officers also plan to be present.

The Beardstown club is celebrating the 25th anniversary of the organization of the club, and will be attended by many early members.

Two present members of the Jacksonville club who were present when the Beardstown club was organized expect to attend — Miss Jennie Rabjohns and Miss Agnes Paxton.

John A. Watret, a resident of Loami vicinity, died at Our Saviour's hospital at 11:30 p.m. Wednesday at the age of 58 years.

Mr. Watret was born in Dunfermline, Scotland, on Feb. 18, 1871, and came to America at the age of 20 years. He has resided in Morgan and Sangamon counties for more than 50 years.

On Feb. 2, 1898, he was united in marriage with Miss Ellen Rickerby. To this union were born two children, both of whom survive. They are Leigh of Loami and Grace at home. His wife also survives.

There are also several brothers and sisters in Scotland.

The remains were taken to the McCullough Funeral Home at New Berlin and will be returned to the residence in Loami Friday at 11 a.m. Friends may call at the funeral home until that time.

Funeral services will be held Saturday at 2 p.m. at the residence, with Elder Bryan Adair officiating. Burial will be in Woodworth cemetery at Island Grove.

Install New Bishop Of Joliet Diocese

Joliet, Ill., March 24—(P)—A new Catholic bishop took charge of a new diocese here today in a ceremony attended by more than 600 members of the clergy.

In the small, jammed Cathedral of St. Raymond, the crook and mitre were taken by Bishop Martin D. McNamara, former Wilmette, Ill., pastor who was consecrated March 7 at Chicago.

The 50-year-old priest was installed by Samuel Cardinal Stritch of Chicago. Watching the ceremony along with the ecclesiastics, including 11 other bishops, was Mrs. Mary Hogan McNamara, 87, mother of Bishop McNamara.

His diocese, recently established from parts of the Chicago archdiocese and the Peoria and Springfield dioceses of the church, covers seven counties south of Chicago — Will, DuPage, Kendall, Grundy, Kane, Kane, Iroquois and Ford.

Bishop McNamara revealed in his first sermon that he had chosen St. Francis Xavier, famed for his missionary works, as patron of the new diocese.

TOM GOLIER PATIENT AT VETERANS HOSPITAL

Tom Gollier, son of Harry Gollier of this city, recently underwent a serious operation at the Veterans' Hospital in Jefferson Barracks, Mo.

His wife, Ramona, returned from the hospital Thursday, after a three-day visit with him, and reports that he is holding his own satisfactorily.

High School Students Present 3-Act Play

The popular and hilarious comedy, "Our Hearts Were Young and Gay," was presented to a capacity audience last night in the high school auditorium by the senior class of JHS.

The second performance of this presentation will start at 8 p.m. this evening. Tickets for the reserved seats can be purchased at the gate.

Is A Gay Comedy

The play has been dramatized by Jean Kerr from the book written by Cornelia Otis Skinner and Emily Kimbrough. It portrays Cornelia and Emily's experiences during a trip to Paris. A murder, moneybags, exploding meters, bedbugs, an epidemic of measles, and French holidays all combine to make this a gay sizzling comedy.

Name Student Cast

Jacksonville high school students who appeared in the play last night, and who can be viewed on the stage again this evening include George Fox, Jeanie Wood, Mary Elledge, Bill Malcomson, Mary Ellen Potter, John Wendorff, Florence Ritchie, Edward Edgemoor, Alvin Jording, Jr., Doris Edgemoor, Elaine Irlam, Bob Carpenter, Betty Lou Walker, Mary Ann Gibbs, Alice Paset, Charlotte Dietz, Jacques Kozub, Howard Gutekunst.

The production is under the direction of Miss Fergene Goddin. Edward Horton is the student stage manager.

Corrington Family Gives Hospital Lobby

Mr. and Mrs. Clinton F. Corrington of New Berlin, life-long residents of this area, have made a memorial gift toward the new Passavant Memorial hospital, donating the lobby to the new edifice.

In announcing this generous gift, the campaign executive committee through its general chairman, J. Chester Colton, stated, "The lobby of the new hospital, comfortably furnished, will provide the sympathetic and friendly atmosphere which is so helpful to patients and their loved ones when they enter the hospital."

"The hospital is an institution. It must be thorough and efficient in its functioning, but never so impersonal or institutionalized that its atmosphere becomes forbidding. From the time the patient approaches the doorway of the hospital and enters the comfortable foyer or lobby, there will be engendered the feeling of security and hopefulness, creating that quiet confidence which stimulates a feeling of 'at homeness' which is such an aid to quick recovery."

"Here is another beautiful gift which is so heartening to us and which will inspire others to make our New Passavant Memorial area hospital a reality."

Following the business meeting, the high school quintet composed of Shirley Thomas, Janice McLaughlin, Geraldine Garrison, Carol Dunham and Katherine Saffer sang three numbers. They were accompanied by Norma Jean Smith at the piano.

Mrs. Mary C. Smith was speaker of the evening and presented an interesting report on an educational conference which was held in Jacksonville recently and which she had attended. This conference provided an opportunity for teachers, school administrators, students and parents to work together in developing plans for improving educational programs in local communities. A similar conference is planned for the month of April and will be held in Winchester.

Following the meeting bingo was played and refreshments were served by the following committee: Mrs. Dana O'Donnell, Mrs. Loyd Blackburn, Mrs. Richard Blackburn, Mrs. Ralph Rogers and Mrs. George Lashmett.

John A. Watret Dies At Hospital Here Wednesday

John A. Watret, a resident of Loami vicinity, died at Our Saviour's hospital at 11:30 p.m. Wednesday at the age of 58 years.

Mr. Watret was born in Dunfermline, Scotland, on Feb. 18, 1871, and came to America at the age of 20 years. He has resided in Morgan and Sangamon counties for more than 50 years.

On Feb. 2, 1898, he was united in marriage with Miss Ellen Rickerby. To this union were born two children, both of whom survive. They are Leigh of Loami and Grace at home. His wife also survives.

Odd Fellows Hold District Meeting At Winchester

Winchester—The monthly meeting of the Odd Fellows Lodge of District No. 64 was held in the hall of Pioneer Lodge No. 70, of Winchester on Tuesday evening with 31 ty-five members in attendance. The lodges represented were Urania Lodge No. 243 of Jacksonville, Illinois No. 4 of Jacksonville, Scott Lodge No. 702 of Bluffs, and Pioneer Lodge No. 70 of Winchester.

The degree staff of Pioneer Lodge conferred the initiatory degree on two candidates in a very creditable manner. The candidates initiated were Woodrow W. King and Douglas E. Smothers.

After the degree work, a program was presented which consisted of music by a quartette from Urania Lodge in Jacksonville, and an address by Grand Secretary David W. Gordon of Springfield. Remarks by Past Grand Masters Elbert C. Brasel of Jacksonville and Charles Vandettum of White Hall were made.

Following the program, refreshments were served by the committee in Wiley Hall, after which all enjoyed a social hour.

The next meeting of the district will be held in the Hall of Urania Lodge in Jacksonville sometime in April.

Burglars Visit Two Taverns In Jersey County

Jerseyville—Burglars invaded Sparky's Tavern in the village of Fieldon sometime during the early morning hours of Tuesday and escaped with a variety of loot. Among the items taken were two cases of whiskey "fifties." The cash register was rifled and the cigarette vending machine was broken into and all cash removed.

The tavern is owned by Louis Rosenthal and Edward Motter of Fieldon who purchased it recently.

Senate Finds Food For Talk

Washington—(P)—Food is an interesting subject to the U. S. Senate. A discussion of the Democrats' Jackson Day dinners, and menus, became so long-drawn it delayed the Senate's lunch.

Senator Brewster (R-Maine) started it when he said: "I felt that before any of us went to lunch it might regale us if we did have an opportunity to turn over on our tongues the delightful and apparently very delicious feast of Belshazzar with which some of our friends were regaled at the price. I am advised, of a hundred dollars a plate."

He asked that the menu of the Washington dinner, which President Truman attended, be printed in the Congressional Record. It included diamond back terrapin soup, filet mignon and champagne.

Senator Pepper (D-Fla) interrupted: "Might not the menu referred to by the able Senator from Maine be evidence of the fact that, although when the Republicans were in power there was hardly anyone eating well except the special interests crowd, yet when the Democrats have been in power 17 years even the Democrats are eating well?" (Laughter).

Senator Baldwin (R-Conn): "I arrived in time to hear my distinguished friend from Illinois (Senator Lucas, Democrat) raising certain questions about Maine lobsters and Maine potatoes. It might be a fair question as to whether or not the Maine potatoes are not preferred to the corn in all forms we get from Illinois." (Laughter).

Senator Lucas: "In view of the fact that the senator (Baldwin) comes from the nutmeg state of Connecticut I can understand how a nutty question of that kind would be asked." (Laughter).

BRITAIN COUNTS POLISH CORPS COSTS

London—(P)—A government committee recommends that the Polish resettlement corps, an outgrowth of Gen. "Wladyslaw Anders" Polish Refugee army, be discarded by the end of next September, when it will be three years old.

The committee says the corps has cost Britain's three services 110,333,815 pounds ($445,335,660) and handled 114,037 Poles. A late count showed it still had 11,015. Of these, 5,837 were officers—old and disabled and hard to place in jobs.

Most of the Poles have balked at going back where they came from, because the communists are in power there now. Only 8,912 have been repatriated, with 50 waiting to go.

Of the others, 11,409 have moved on from Britain to other countries, 71,563 have taken jobs in this country, 2,066 have turned students and 2,066 have joined the armed forces.

The tag ends are expected either to go abroad or to settle in Britain.

Members of the corps have drawn pay by rank, two-thirds to three-quarters of that for the British services. The committee says the old and disabled should be put on public assistance.

Says Freedom Train Is Like Paul Revere

Washington—(P)—Rep. McSweeney (D-Ohio) sees a strong resemblance between the clickety-clack cadence made by the wheels of the Freedom Train as it rolls throughout America, and the sound made by the clanking hooves of Paul Revere's horse.

"I feel that this train is, in reality, almost a mechanical Paul Revere, carrying into every Middlesex village and farm the things we want the people of our community to see," he told the House during debate on an appropriation to continue the operation of the train, which already has visited many American communities. "We are not sending out copies but we are sending out the originals of these documents (of American history) that fire the imagination not only of our own people but of the people of the world."

"When the New England poet Emerson said—'By the rude arch that spanned the flood, Their flag to April's breeze unfurled. There once the embattled farmers stood, And fired the shot heard 'round the world'—I am frank to say that the shot could not have reverberated very long unless we have given meaning to that shot. So the great American, Thomas Jefferson, did not fire a shot, but he fired the imagination of the people by giving them the cause for firing that shot, in the Declaration of Independence, which gave the cause for our revolution and gave those patriotic men the reason for going out and dying for that cause of freedom."

The Vieux Carre or original city of New Orleans was about a mile long and extended about half a mile from the river.

Grizzly bears are said to be stronger and more ferocious than any other American animal.

Cass Co. Couple Engaged To Wed

Ashland—Mr. and Mrs. Hartley Birdsell of near Pleasant Plains have announced the engagement of their daughter, Velma Lou, to Gerald Douglas, son of Mr. and Mrs. Chester Douglas of this city.

No date has been set for the wedding. Miss Birdsell is a member of the junior class of the local high school, and Mr. Douglas is a former student of the local high school.

FRANKLIN

Franklin—The Philathea Sunday school class held its monthly meeting at the church Wednesday evening with Mrs. Clarence Hart, Mrs. Mike Hetzel and Mrs. Earl Hayes as hostesses.

Five men have filed petitions for positions on the school board of Franklin unit district No. 1: Leroy Smith, Ralph Dahman, and Watson Chase of Franklin, and Robert Foster and James Harris of Alexander. The election will be held April 9.

New Orleans lies below the high-water levels of the Mississippi, the Gulf of Mexico, and Lake Pontchartrain.

Why: Government Housekeeping Costs Plenty

Washington — Your Uncle Sam spends about $6,000,000,000 a year of your tax money just for the things he needs to get his work done, like note-books for stenographers and autos for the forest service. The military gets the lion's share.

Uncle Sam spends almost a billion a year just shuttling the stuff around the country. He has goods stuck around on shelves all over the country worth about $27,000,000,000. Just the autos he uses are worth at least $2,000,000,000.

He owns so much that it keeps 150,000 people at work just to buy it, store it and distribute it. Their salaries cost us taxpayers $440,000,000 a year.

The Hoover Commission (which has worked a year to get us more for our money) gives you the idea that this "general store" division of the government is an Alice-in-Wonderland operation to some degree.

It says some government departments actually don't know what supplies they have on hand because they haven't counted their stores in years.

The commission found it impossible to list exactly the many places the government uses to store materials. It found many agencies have on hand more than they need. It found buying agents make little attempt to buy when market prices are low.

The Hoover Commission feels we taxpayers could save at least $27,000,000,000 just in salaries of the people who buy and handle the goods Uncle Sam owns. It feels further that the stocks could be cut back by $2,520,000,000 by preventing duplication and buying just what's needed for a planned period.

Here's how the commission thinks that much could be cut:

1. A Bureau of Federal Supply could do most of the buying for the government. Instead of permitting so many of the government departments to do their own buying, as they do now. Some supplies are so technical, the commission admits, that they should be bought by the agency that is going to use it.

But the commission thinks federal buying can be so consolidated that the central bureau would even buy a good many things the military needs. It cites medical supplies as an example, and perhaps ordinary office supplies.

2. This central bureau could then cut down the storage space the government is now using. The commission found that just six of the big civilian government departments are storing supplies in 748 places around the country.

This doesn't include the Post Office's 115 store houses, the military's 160 major depots or 73 more storage spots right in the Washington area.

3. Government purchasing could be placed on a monthly basis. The commission found that 1,500,000 purchases a year are for items worth less than $10. But the cost of the "paper work" just to put such purchases through actually costs more than $10 an item—more than the cost of the article.

The commission thinks it possible to cut the cost of such purchases by $10 each, which would mean an annual saving of $15,000,000.

4. Important savings would come in cutting both the amount of supplies on hand and the number of people handling them. The commission thinks the savings, conservatively, would add up something like this:

Military inventories could be cut by $2,500,000,000 and civilian by $200,000,000. It thinks the salaries of people handling the stuff could be cut by $26,000,000 a year in the military and $1,200,000 in the civilian agencies of the government. That adds up to $2,547,000,000.

Meredosia Pastor Resigns Duties Effective In June

Meredosia—Rev. Herman Wennermark, pastor of St. John's and Trinity Lutheran Churches in Meredosia for the past 11 years, tendered his resignation to both parishes Sunday.

Both Rev. Wennermark and his wife, have been in poor health for some time. He will continue his duties at the churches, and as chaplain of the Meredosia American Legion post until the first of June.

Ralph Unland, of Springfield and Mr. and Mrs. Maurice LaTier, of Griggsville, were week end guests at the Harold Unland home.

Mr. and Mrs. Horace Worsban and family, who have been residents here for the past eighteen months, moved to Havana, Ill., Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Unland and son Mark, spent Sunday afternoon in Springfield as guests of Mr. and Mrs. Martin Fricke and daughter, Connie.

Lee Buhlig and family of Naples were guests of Wanda Dummire Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Telling were visitors of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Telling Sunday.

LACK OF COMPLAINTS FRET AMERICANS IN GERMANY

Berlin — (AP) — Trying to get the Germans to police their own government is one of the hardest jobs attempted by U.S. military government.

If an American doesn't like the way his congressman or alderman votes, or the way a civil servant treats him, he raises a loud public beef. But not a German. Decades of autocratic rule have taught him either to be afraid or resigned.

Even now, when he elects his own officials, he takes abuses of power in silence—or at most he grumbles in private.

Military government is trying to teach the Germans to "assert their rights." Murray D. Van Wagoner, military governor of Bavaria, recently gave the Germans a lecture on the subject.

Mrs. Allen Lorton and son Bradley, of Greenfield, are spending the week with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Martin Callender and daughter.

Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Bain and family of Jerseyville, spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Carl Bain and daughters.

Harry Hatcher, manager of the Smith Orchard, escaped serious injury, the latter part of the week, when oil which he was using to become ignited and he was badly burned on both hands and one limb.

His brother-in-law, George Fundel, who was working nearby, came to his rescue and put out the blaze.

Sunday dinner guests in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Dawdy, were Rev. and Mrs. Ernest Dawdy and Mr. and Mrs. Harley Dawdy.

Mr. Ed Taylor has been confined to his home by illness the past week.

Ashland School Lists Honor Roll

Ashland—Louise Woods topped the honor roll for the first six weeks period in the second semester at the high school with five A's. Marjorie Farmer completed the list of seniors.

Others on the honor roll were six juniors, Franklin Faulk, Ruth Anne Butler, Ann Houser, Jean Kreis, Joan Lewis and Marion Stewart; Carol Edwards the only sophomore; and Joan Price, freshman.

If Alaska becomes the 49th state in the union, it will also be the largest.

India, Russia Trade Goods

New Delhi — (AP) — Informal talks for a regular trade agreement with Russia have resulted so far only in two barter agreements.

Commerce Minister K. C. Neogy told questioners in the legislative assembly the first agreement resulted in the exchange of 5,000 metric tons of India tea for 50,000 tons of Russian wheat.

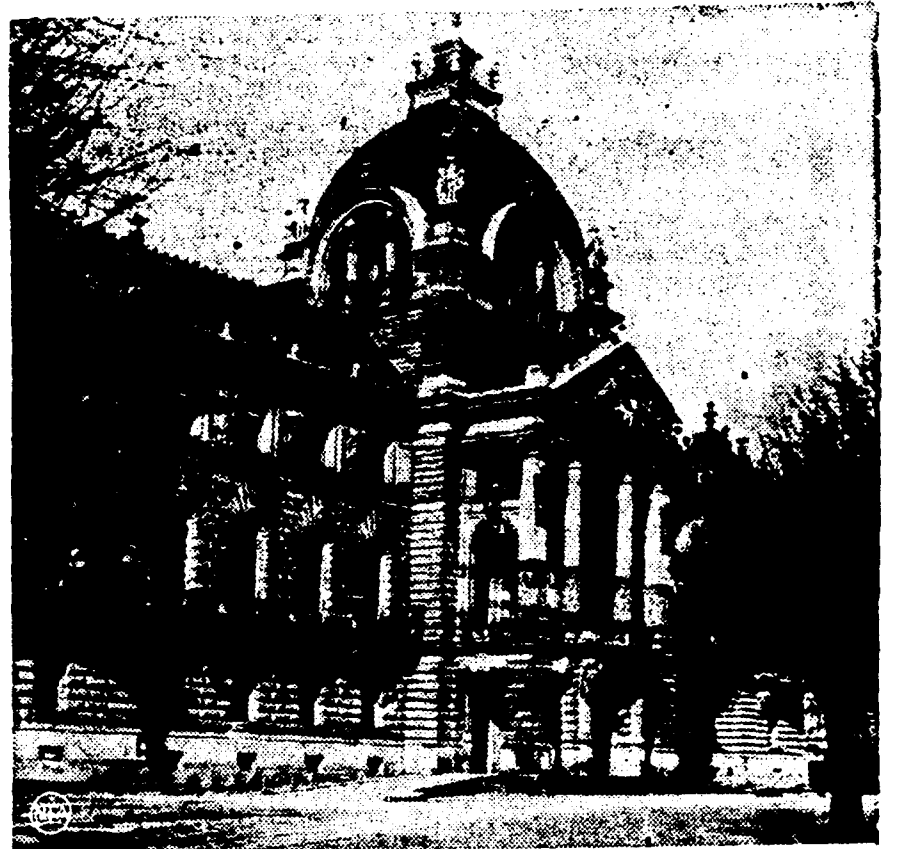

The second which would be in operation this month related to the supply by India of 5,000 tons of raw jute, 5,000 tons of tea and 1,000 tons of castor oil in exchange for 81,000 tons of Russian wheat.

Capitol of Europe?

It is believed the "Palais du Rhin," above, in Strasbourg, France, will be the Capitol building of the proposed Council of Europe, which may be the first step toward a United States of Europe. The Council's constitution calls for a cabinet and a 100-man assembly which will meet for a minimum of one month each summer in Strasbourg, the Council's capital.

Carrollton AAUW Entertains Girls At Career Night

Carrollton.—Miss Mary Postlewaite of Jacksonville, daughter of Mrs. Elizabeth Postlewaite of this city, was the guest speaker at career night Monday evening sponsored by the local Business and Professional Women's club, with girls of the senior classes of Carrollton and St. John's high schools as guests. Miss Postlewaite is a graduate of the local high school and of Brown's Business college and began her business career in the office of the Ideal Baking company of Jacksonville. She is now on the board of directors of the company and is secretary of the board as well as office manager. She is also district chairman of the Business and Professional Women's clubs and has long been a member of the state board of the organization. In her talk Monday evening she gave a resume of her career as a business woman.

As Miss Postlewaite concluded her address she introduced three friends who were with her and who also made interesting contributions to the program. They were Miss Blanche Spall, president of the Jacksonville Business and Professional Women's club and counselor for girls at the Jacksonville high school where she is a member of the faculty; Miss Dorothy Rinne, a church secretary and assistant to the pastor of Grace Methodist church in Jacksonville, and Mrs. Alice Applebee who told of the experiences of herself and her husband, Dr. A. B. Applebee, in bringing to this country a displaced family from Latvia to assist with the work on their farm near Jacksonville.

William Alfeld, accompanied by Miss Nita Ford, sang a group of songs from light opera. Mrs. Fred Ashlock presided at the meeting in the absence of the president, Miss Catherine Shalloe, and the vice-president, Miss Helen Epps, and appointed a nominating committee for 1949 and 1950. Announcement was made of the district meeting to be held at Beardstown on Sunday, March 27.

Chandlerville Club To Sponsor Dance

The newly-formed Hi Jinx club of the Chandlerville high school will sponsor a supper and dance to be held March 31, beginning at 6:30 p.m. Music will be by an orchestra from Havana.

The club is comprised of girls from the Chandlerville high school. It is a social club and the adviser is Mrs. LaVerne Greer.

PATTERSON

Patterson.—Mr. and Mrs. Jack Alred, of Jacksonville, and Mr. and Mrs. Paul Morrow of White Hall were Sunday dinner guests in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Bert Tankersley and Mr. W. C. Linder. Afternoon callers included Mr. and Mrs. Austin Wiley and family.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Ringering of Woodriver were Sunday visitors with Mr. and Mrs. James Ringering and family.

Mr. and Mrs. Russell Karnes and son, of Kincaid, spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. William McClennan, and daughter. Mr. and Mrs. Ebert Ferguson and son of Greenfield visited with them Sunday afternoon. Mrs. Mildred McEvers, and daughter, Naomi, who is home a few days from Peoria, were Monday evening supper guests of Mr. and Mrs. Estelle Cowper and daughter, Sandra, in Glasgow. Mrs. Art Howard was also a guest.

Mrs. Effie Sherwin of Jacksonville is visiting a few days this week with her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Guy Sorrells.

In 1653, Izaak Walton described 12 fishermen's flies used to imitate insects which fish were thought to like.

A similar bridge at the opposite end of the parking space. It was a thin crust of slush and ice through which the car promptly sank. Be it said to Roger's credit, he was not flustered. If anything, he was even more pleased than before. He now had a two-alarm fire to his credit.

A FEW muttered comments and the cry of the wrecker, egged on by the hoots and catcalls of the now completely unjealous audience, hooked on again, this time to the rear bumper for a change, and drew us back to the parking lot level. I indicated to Roger that I'd be glad to drive it if—

He interrupted me. He would now take me on a personally escorted tour of the Base. He backed slowly for a few feet, made a half turn forward, got squared away to the little bridge, and, encouraged by the loudly cheering ho! polloi, drove successfully to the main road.

While we were in the Post Exchange, Roger asked what little things he could pick up toward our dinner.

"Oh, we don't have dinner on Sunday," I replied. "We just have a pot-luck supper."

"Entirely civilized," he agreed.
"But getting back to my question:
what is there you would like that I might be able to contribute?"

"You must let me get the supper.
Sunday should be your day off.
And you'd be surprised at how handy I am."

He wasn't handy in the kitchen only; he was handy in the bar, which he pre-empted while I was hanging up my hat and coat.

"Suh," he said to "Rob," "what can I make for you?" Noting that I had entered the room, he added gargulously, "And for you, fair lady?"

He made three highballs until the balance of our quota of rationed whisky for that week was gone.
Then he lent me a hand in the kitchen, and he later helped with the dishes. No reference was made to the antics of the afternoon; I waited for Roger to tell on himself, but he didn't seem to consider it a subject for conversation.

Background For Easter

By Epsie Kinard.

New York—(NEA)—Suits, coats and coat-dresses of neutral grays and beiges will be united in the Easter parade to prove their supremacy as background basics for the spring wardrobe.

Aiding in setting these stylized neutrals in their fashionable contentions are new and richer shades and tone-on-tone color, plus the superlative quality of this spring's woolens and the talents of outstanding designers.

The dressmaker detail of brown taffeta piping is used, for example, by Paul Parnes to accent cavalier cuffs, triple pockets and revers of a suit jacket worn with a brown taffeta bow-tied blouse. What puts this suit in the class of fashionable neutrals is a woolen worsted with a brown pin-checked pattern which gives a paradoxical impression of fuses colors into a tone-on-tone both slowness and swing.

Cashmere velvet in a wheat tone, as rich in color as sunlit sheaves, has inspired Hattie Carnegie's styling of a spectacular spring coat called the low-pocket silhouette. With pockets slashed inches lower into its skirt, the double-collared coat is cut to fall in fluid folds that marked Mr. Drummond's 59th birthday anniversary.

GLASGOW

Mr. and Mrs. Connie Drummond, of Pittsfield, visited relatives and friends here Sunday morning.

Mr. and Mrs. Chester Gourley and family, of Carrollton, were here Sunday visiting her mother, Mrs. Lena Fundel, and other relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Evans, who live near Glasgow, are the parents of a baby son, born Friday evening, March 18, at Passavant Hospital in Jacksonville.

Mr. and Mrs. John Kelly, daughter, Louise, Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Kelly, children, Carol and Virginia, and Miss Margaret Summers, of Manchester, and Charles Shipley of Winchester were Sunday afternoon visitors with Mr. and Mrs. William Drummond, and son, Billy, south of Glasgow.

Mr. and Mrs. Estelle Cowper, daughter, Sandra Lou, and Mrs. Arty Howard were calling on relatives in the home of Mrs. Marie Dawdy and family, in Patterson, Sunday afternoon.

Howard Blair, and sister, Mrs. James Ellison and family of Erie, were week end visitors with another sister and family, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Hester and children.

Mr. and Mrs. David Palmer and children, of Salem, were here over the week end visiting her mother, Mrs. Ruby Drummond and family. Mrs. Mildred McEvers of Patterson, and daughter, Miss Naomi McEvers of Peoria, were Monday evening supper guests of Mr. and Mrs. Estelle Cowper, and daughter, Sandra Lou.

J. H. Edwards, who has been operating a barber shop in Lombard, and his brother, Virgil Edwards of Bartlett, were at the former's home here over the week end.

J. H. Edwards has recently sold his shop in Lombard, and expects to return here about the first of April.

Cherill, baby daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Thomas, became suddenly ill Friday evening, and was rushed to the home of Mrs. Thomas' mother in White Hall, where she responded satisfactorily to treatments administered by Dr. Drake of that city.

Miss Sharon Lou Alderman of Springfield was a week end visitor here with relatives and friends.

Mrs. Anna Blair was a Sunday dinner guest of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Young and family, east of town.

Mr. and Mrs. William Drummond son, Billy, were Saturday evening supper guests of their daughter and family, Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Ingram and sons, in Alsey. The event

Light-headed Easter Forecast

Airy Hats Lead Parade

New York—(NEA)—The Easter bonnet which weighs an ounce is an extreme example of the light-headed look and feel of this spring's hats.

This ounce-light hat—a Hattie Carnegie design (upper left) with silk flowers tucked into the folds of its skyscraping brim—is made of new cobwebby sheer brown "lace-look." But hats made of traditional straws and silks look airy and feel light, too.

Most hats are freed from burdensome trimming. One designer—Sally Victor—goes on record as dividing the burden between the head and the neck. She comes up with a ribbon-trimmed pink ball-bun-tail straw "profile hat" (center) for which she makes a new whimsy in neckwear: a "ladies" Byonesque cravat of on the head than a scarf. Drapery matching taffeta, already tied and looped for easy wearing.

A Victor hat of cocoa brown lace a pearl barrette, gives this hat the look of a scarf worn with superlative chic.

A simple beige milan, trimmed only with brim-edged fringe of contrasting red straw, is another John-Fredericks hat (upper right). It's one more example of the hat which carries a lot of style weight but adds very little to the burden on your head.

VERSAILLES

Versailles—The local Home Bureau unit held their March meeting in the home of Mrs. Faye Stone Thursday afternoon with sixteen members and four visitors present.

Roll call was answered with "Changes I would like to make in my home." Miss Rebbe Home Advisor gave the lesson on "Public Health Facilities in Illinois." Final plans were made for the P.F.A. supper to be held in the Community Building here Friday March 25th.

Refreshments were served at the close of the afternoon by the hostess.

Plan To Fete Alsey Cagers

Plans for the annual basketball team banquet were discussed at a meeting of the Alsey P. T. A. recently.

The group was entertained following the business session by a program of music presented by the Bluffs and the Winchester grade school band under the direction of Melvin Doihouse. Selections of orchestral music were played by Mr. and Mrs. Clyde McMahon, Donald Dunnagan and Joe Sanderson.

Fishing flies are wound by hand, using waxed silk thread to hold the materials in place.
